1. Denatured spirit is spirit rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption by the admixture of light cæutchoucine and crude pyridine bases wholly made from a mineral source or wood naphtha or other special denaturants, approved by the Board of Revenue.

2. Spirit denatured with light cæutchoucine and pyridine bases may be imported by sea. Spirit treated with wood-naphtha or other special denaturants can be imported only with the special sanction of the Board.

3. Whenever spirit is imported which is said to have been effectually and permanently rendered unfit for human consumption, and on which it is proposed to pay duty ad valorem, the Customs Collector shall send a sample of such spirit to the Board's Laboratory for examination and report. On receipt of this report, the Collector shall decide whether the claim shall be admitted or not. The Collector shall not admit the claim if the spirit is of less strength than 50° over proof and unless the importer satisfies the Collector that he is duly licensed to transport and possess such spirit. In the case of imports by sea from other Presidencies, a certificate from the Collector of Customs at the port of shipment to the effect that the spirit is not of less strength than 50° over proof and that it has been fully denatured with the prescribed denaturants may be accepted, in lieu of the Board's report.

4. Spirit that has not been effectually and permanently rendered unfit for human consumption shall either be so rendered or shall pay duty at the full tariff rate.

5. Imported spirit may be rendered unfit for human consumption under the supervision of officers of the Customs Department by admixture of light cæutchoucine and pyridine bases provided (1) that the light cæutchoucine and pyridine bases to be mixed with the spirit must first be tested and approved in the Board's Laboratory, (2) that they must be kept under lock and key by, and be used under the supervision of, the Customs Collector, (3) that they must be used in the proportion of half a gallon of light cæutchoucine and half a gallon of pyridine bases to 9½ gallons of the spirit and (4) that the spirit shall not be of less strength than 50° over proof. Similar conditions apply to the use of wood-naphtha, in the special cases where its use is permitted, with this difference that one part by volume of crude wood naphtha shall be mixed with nine parts of spirit. The Board's previous sanction should be obtained in cases of special methods of denaturation for spirit intended for use in particular arts and manufactures.

6. Any expense which may be incurred by the Collector of Customs in rendering spirit unfit for human consumption or in ascertaining that it has been so rendered shall be paid by the importer.

7 The quantity of spirit rendered unfit for human consumption which may be removed from the Custom-house at any one time, shall not exceed the limit prescribed in the rules made under sections 13 and 15 of the Madras Abkári Act, 1886. The Customs Collector will send an advice promptly of each issue of denatured spirit that he makes to the Inspector of the Circle to which the spirit is consigned.

8. When any such spirit is imported in excess of the limit prescribed, the importer may bond such excess part of the consignment or the whole.

N.B.—Should the number of candidates who have applied to be examined at any one of the above centres fall short of thirty, the candidates that selected that centre must be prepared to proceed, at their own expense, to the nearest centre where the examination may be held. Timely notice will be given to the candidates concerned.

* Candidates coming up in Botany (special) should state in their applications whether they bring up this subject as one of the subjects required for the Diploma for Chemists and Druggists.

† The examinations in Book-keeping, Banking, Commercial Geography, Shorthand, and in Type-writing (Elementary and Intermediate grades) will be conducted according to the syllabuses revised up to 12th June 1908.

‡ The syllabus for "Commercial Correspondence," has been replaced by the syllabus for "Theory and Practice of Commerce."

§ Candidates coming up in Shorthand will be allowed to transcribe their shorthand notes with a type-writer They must bring with them their own type-writers for this purpose.

‖ Candidates coming up in Type-writing must bring with them their own type-writers—the Remington, Yost, New Century, Smith Premier, Densmore, Empire, Underwood, Oliver, Armstrong or L C Smith & Bros machine The candidates will be examined en batches, but at least every six candidates for the Elementary grade, at least every four candidates for the Intermediate grade and at least every three candidates for the Advanced grade must have one machine among them.

3. No notice will be taken of the application of any candidate who selects a centre which is not in the above list, and no candidate will be allowed to name more than one centre. No candidate will on any account be allowed to change the place of examination entered in his application, which must invariably be the place where he is employed or ordinarily resides, or should it not be a centre, the place nearest to it where the examination is held. A candidate appearing for examination at a centre other than the one mentioned by him in his application must be prepared to have his examination annulled.

4. In addition to the above centres, the Commissioner will be prepared to arrange for the holding of the Written examination in any of the subjects mentioned at any other place, if he is satisfied that not fewer than thirty candidates are likely to offer themselves for examination, and it is advisable to make such place a centre. Applications for the inclusion of such place or places in the list of centres should be made to the Commissioner through the local educational or other authorities concerned before the 20th January. Ordinarily, however, only one place will be constituted a centre for each district.

5. The oral and practical examinations in such subjects as require them will be held at those places only where satisfactory arrangements can be made for the conduct of such examinations.

N B.—In guard against disappointment in the case of such of the Oral and Practical examinations as may be held before the Written examination candidates are recommended to refer to Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette from time to time.

6. Candidates whose examinations, either written or oral and practical, cannot be arranged for at any place must, at their own expense, proceed to Madras or to the nearest centre where they are held in the subjects in which they appear.

7. Heads of institutions are requested to see, before the certificate at the foot of the application is signed by them, that their institution has been recognised by the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, as fitted to impart instruction in the Technical subjects and for the grades in them brought up by their pupils.

N.B.—Heads of institutions recognised for General Education only should not sign the certificate at the foot of the application form filled in by any of their pupils coming up for any of the Technical examinations.

8. All pupils coming up from the same institution must select the same centre, and the applications of all of them should be forwarded together (along with a covering letter stating the number of applications) by the head of that institution, no applications of any private candidates being enclosed with these applications.

9. Each candidate must, wherever the syllabus requires it, submit, before the 31st January, the necessary drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other "certified works". Each of the drawings, etc., submitted must have entered on it the name of the candidate, the subject and grade of examination for which he appears and the centre at which he appears, and must be certified to be his own unaided work by the head of the institution or office to which he belongs, by an officer of the Public Works Department not below the rank of Supervisor, by a District Board Engineer, by the Engineer of the Corporation of Madras, or by an Engineer of any Railway Company.

Candidates are specially warned that no certified works will be valued by examiners unless the certificate of authorship is in each case quite satisfactory, and specifies clearly the period of time occupied in the execution of each work and unless the examiners are satisfied as to the identity and qualifications of the persons granting the certificates. Further, if any suspicion attaches to any certified works submitted by pupils from Technical Schools, the Commissioner will be compelled to recommend to the Director of Public Instruction the withdrawal of the departmental privileges enjoyed by the schools. Private candidates, whose certified works are in any way suspected by the examiners, will be liable to have their examination invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit.

It must be particularly noted that the drawings, etc., of each candidate should be submitted in a separate roll for each subject and for each grade (i.e., the drawings, etc., for a number of subjects should not be rolled up together), and that the drawings, etc., of a number of candidates should not be sent in one and the same roll. Also, on the outside of each roll for each subject, each candidate should enter the following particulars in ink :—

(1) Name of candidate,
(2) Place of examination,
(3) Subject,
(4) Grade, and
(5) Total number of drawings in each roll.

As the application has to be kept in the office and as the drawings, etc., have to be forwarded to the examiners, the application itself should be sent in a separate cover and not rolled up with the drawings, etc.

A candidate who failed, or having applied, did not appear, at a previous examination, must submit fresh drawings, etc. The drawings, etc., submitted will on no account be returned.

10. Candidates must send in their applications made out in English on printed forms so that they reach the Commissioner's Office on or before the 31st January, after which date no applications will be received. Only one form of application should be used by each candidate, although he may bring up several subjects and come up for different grades.

11. Candidates in the mufassal should obtain the required application forms from the Treasury of the taluk in which they are resident or of the district to which they belong. Candidates who are residents of Madras should apply for application forms at the Office of the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Old College, Nungambakkam, and not to the Collector of Madras

N.B.—No notice will be taken of any applications from candidates in the mufassal requesting to be supplied with application forms from this office.

12. The following is the scale of fees to be paid by candidates for admission to the examinations:—

	Elementary	Intermediate.	Advanced.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
For each subject	3	4	10

N.B.—No candidate will be permitted to come up for examination in more than one grade in the same subject at the same time.

13. The prescribed fee must be paid in every case into a Government Treasury, or, if at Madras, into the Bank of Madras, and the receipt given by the Treasury Officer or the Bank of Madras attached to the application, which must in every case reach the Commissioner's Office on or before the 31st January. On no account will the fees be received in the Commissioner's Office, whether sent in cash or by Post Office orders. No application will be registered unless it reaches the Commissioner's Office by the date prescribed.

NOTE.—At Madras, in the case of all pupils, the fees should be collected by the Headmaster and sent in a lump sum to the Bank of Madras together with two lists of the pupils, one of which will be retained by the Bank and the other signed and returned to the Headmaster. This latter list should be forwarded to this office along with the applications of the candidates. The necessary forms for this purpose will be supplied by this office to Headmasters on application.

14. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post paid, superscribed and addressed as follows, the receipt for the fee paid being securely fastened to it

☞ Candidates are warned that the application itself should not be enclosed with any drawings, plans, surveys, field books, estimates, or other "certified works" that may be sent, but should be submitted in a separate cover.

[Application for admission to the Government Technical Examinations.]

for Government Examinations,
Nungambakkam,
Madras, S.W.

N B.—Candidates anxious to assure themselves that their applications have been received should enclose an addressed post card in their respective applications. The post card should bear the sender's address only, and no other writing. Such post cards will be returned to them in due course with the "Received" stamp of the office impressed upon them. No other form of acknowledgment except that required by the postal rules regarding registered covers can possibly be given, nor will any notice be taken of any letter from any candidate inquiring whether his application has been received. Insufficiently stamped covers will be rejected.

15. Candidates should write their names, their father's names, and their house names distinctly and in full in their applications and give their address in full also; if "Other Hindus", they should state in column 5 of their applications whether they are "Non-Brahman Caste Hindus", or "Panchamas". Applications defective in any particular will be returned.

NOTE.—The occupation or profession of candidates, or the appointments held by them should invariably be stated—in full—in column 10 of their applications.

16. The fee paid will, in no case whatsoever, be refunded, nor will it be reserved for a subsequent examination. Neither will any excess fee that may have been inadvertently paid be returned. Candidates are warned to study the notification carefully and satisfy themselves, before remitting their fee, that they fulfil the prescribed conditions of admission to the examination and that they can, if necessary, proceed, at their own expense, beyond the limits of the examination centre selected by them, for the purpose of undergoing the written, or the oral and practical examinations.

17. Candidates for the Intermediate or Advanced examinations whose names have already been published in the Gazette as having passed a particular stage or stages in subjects in which the examination is divided into stages, or as having passed the Intermediate (late Preliminary), where the examination is of two grades—Intermediate and Advanced—must in their applications cite the date and page of the Gazette in which their names appear and their number in the list of successful candidates.

18. Subject to any change that it may be necessary or convenient to make in the arrangements, the Written examination will be conducted in the order of time and subjects shown in the following table, beginning each day at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 2 o'clock in the afternoon except in the case of Typo-writing for which the arrangement is different as shown in the time-table. Candidates will not be allowed to come up in more than one of the subjects bracketed together for the same time on the same day, or for more than one grade of examination in the same subject in the same year

Arrack and ganja wholesale depot licenses will be issued for all districts. Particulars regarding them will be found in clause XVI below. A separate notification will be issued regarding fixed fee foreign liquor licenses.

III. A deposit must be made by each bidder previous to bidding and will be received by the selling officer on the day of sale. A deposit of Rs 50 will ordinarily be required from any person wishing to bid for any important shop or any large number of shops. This will be reduced to Rs 20 in the case of bidders for not more than two or three shops of an aggregate monthly value of Rs 50 or less and to Rs. 5 in the case of bidders for single small shops. In the Karnool district, the officer conducting the sale may, where he finds it necessary, require a deposit of Rs 10 only from bidders for arrack shops. In the South Canara district, the selling officers may at their discretion reduce the deposit to Rs. 2 for shops whose average monthly rental does not exceed Rs 2.

IV. The shops will be put up to auction in the order in which they are notified, unless the selling officer sees reason to change that order. Upset prices will be fixed at the discretion of the Collectors. The reserve price placed by Government on the shops will not be published, but the average of the previous five years' rentals will be notified by the Collectors, wherever possible, for the information of bidders.

V. No person will be allowed to bid for another unless he holds a power-of-attorney from him.

VI. The officer conducting the sale may, at his discretion, refuse to accept the bid of any person on the ground that he has been convicted by a Criminal Court or has previously been guilty of such a breach of the conditions of a license or of a contract under the Abkári / Opium Act, as to render him undesirable as a holder of a licence or on the ground that he is insolvent or to prevent arrangements to the detriment of Government interests or for any other valid reason. He may also refuse any bid which he may consider to be purely speculative, after recording his reasons for doing so. Village officers will not be allowed to bid for, or to have any direct interest in shops for the sale of intoxicants.

VII. The shops will be knocked down to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to formal confirmation of the Collector, who shall be at liberty to accept or reject any bid at his discretion. Such formal confirmation will be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid, unless revised by the Board of Revenue for special reasons, and will be necessary whether the sale be held by the Collector himself or by any officer appointed by him.

VIII. In case of dispute the selling officer's decision shall be final. If for any reason the highest bid is rejected, the next highest shall be taken or the shop re-sold at his discretion.

IX. At the close of each day's sale, the deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. As the auction proceeds, each person whose bid is accepted shall at once, if so required by the selling officer, or otherwise at the close of the day's sale, make a further deposit * of half a month's rent (in addition to the deposit made under clause III) for each shop unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds two months' rent. Should he fail to do so, the deposit made by him under clause III will be forfeited and the shop will be put up again immediately by the selling officer on the above conditions or otherwise disposed of by the Collector and the defaulter will be debarred from bidding again for the same or for any other shop.

X. Persons to whom shops have been knocked down and who have made deposits as provided in clauses III and IX shall also deposit * such further sum as with the former deposits will make up two months' rent (to be paid within ten days from the date of communication of the Collector's acceptance of the bid) and shall without unnecessary delay execute the necessary engagements and take out licenses on the conditions hereinafter set forth. In the case of the purchaser's death after signing the agreement, it will be binding on his heirs and assigns. Should the initial deposit exceed the sum required to be deposited under this clause, the excess will be refunded unless the purchaser is required to deposit twice that sum under clause XI infra.

XI. If on enquiry subsequent to sale the purchaser shall be found to be of doubtful solvency, he may be required either to deposit twice the sum prescribed in clause X supra, or to get a surety or sureties to execute a security bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by him under the terms of the contract. The bond shall be stamped (article 34, schedule I, Act II of 1899) and registered at the expense of the purchaser if the amount secured exceeds Rs 1,000.

XII. On the failure of any person to make deposit under clause X or to comply with the requisition under clause XI supra or to execute engagements and take out licenses as aforesaid, the deposits already made may be forfeited and the shop re sold under the orders of the Divisional Officer on the dates notified by the Collector or otherwise disposed of by the latter officer.

XIII. Re-sales effected under clause XII will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss, will be required to make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale. In the latter case the forfeited deposits will be deducted from the loss arising from the re-sale, and the remainder, if any, will be recoverable from the defaulter in the same manner as if it were an arrear of Land Revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposits be greater than the loss by re-sale, the whole of such deposits will be credited to Government. The defaulting bidder will be similarly liable if the privilege is disposed of otherwise than by re-sale and such disposal results in loss to Government as compared with original sale.

XIV. The purchaser of the privilege is liable to the penalties prescribed for breaches of the conditions set forth below, though a formal license may not have been issued to him.

XV. The deposit referred to in clause X or clause XI, as the case may be, will be taken as security for the due performance of the conditions of the license. If the Tahsildar † and licensee so agree, it may be credited towards the last instalments of the kists payable by the latter.

Condition of Issue of Licenses for Wholesale Vend of Arrack and Ganja.

XVI. Applications for the privilege of the wholesale vend of country spirits and of intoxicating drugs prepared from the hemp plant should reach the Collectors concerned on or before the 1st March 1911 and each should be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 15 which will be returned to those persons whose applications for licenses are not approved. The grant of licenses confers no exclusive privilege, and it will be open to the Collector to grant licenses under like conditions to other persons at any time during the currency of the licenses for which applications are now invited. Licenses for the wholesale vend of arrack will be granted to private persons only if they have obtained the consent of the arrack supply contractor of the district to the opening of their depots. If such depots are not worked to the satisfaction of the Collector, they may be closed at any time.

The licenses issued under the above clauses will contain the following general conditions common to all abkári and opium licenses and the special conditions prescribed below for each particular kind.

General Conditions applicable to all Abkári and Opium Licenses.

1. Contract suppliers of country spirits are prohibited from holding within their contract areas any interest in the retail vend of arrack or in the vend of other intoxicating liquors such as toddy, foreign liquor and beer, and from employing any person who has such interest. This prohibition does not

* Deposits may be in cash or other approved security.

extend to the wholesale supply of foreign liquor or of rectified spirit to licensed vendors; nor does it prevent them from holding an interest in the retail sale of country spirits in areas other than those for which they have been granted the supply contract, or from holding ganja and opium shops either within or without their contract areas.

2. The limits within which sales under any abkári or opium license may be carried on will be specified by the Collector at the time of the grant of the license. The sale or possession (except subject to the rules applicable to unlicensed persons) of liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs outside those limits is prohibited.

3. Sales must be conducted in a suitable building of which the whole or part must be entirely set aside for use as a depot or shop. If there are means of communication between the depot or shop and an adjoining dwelling-house, they must be kept locked at night. In the case of arrack shops and taverns in Municipalities, or towns having a population of 20,000 and over, the shop premises shall have no doors except into the main street; there shall be no possible means of ingress or egress in any other direction: the interior of the shop shall be sufficiently lighted by day and the shop shall not be used as a place of residence save by the vendor and his family or caretakers.

4. Except in the case when two or more foreign liquor licenses are held by one person, sales under each license issued must be in different premises (chemists and druggists and medical practitioners excepted). The possession upon any licensed premises of any liquor, opium or intoxicating drug except that to which the license relates, or of any essence or substance used or capable of being used for colouring or flavouring liquor is prohibited. But intoxicating drugs made from opium or the poppy other than morphia or sedatives or preparations for smoking may be prepared and sold in shops licensed for the sale of opium. In shops which are clearly of a superior character private bars may be sparingly allowed by the Collector, under a special license to be granted by him free of fee, provided that the interior of the bar is wholly visible from the doorway and that the entrance to it is either through the main door of the shop or through a separate door clearly labelled, or provided with a proper sign-board to show its nature.

5. A sign-board must be affixed to the front of each depot or shop showing the nature and number of the license under which sales are conducted there, the name of the licensee and (except in the case of foreign liquor) the current rate of sale. These particulars must be legibly painted in the local vernacular and, in the case of taverns and wholesale depots, in English also. The license must be hung up in a conspicuous place within.

6. All liquor, opium and intoxicating drugs sold or kept for sale shall be of good quality and unadulterated. Nothing shall be added to opium and intoxicating drugs either to increase their intoxicating power or for any other purpose except the manufacture of intoxicating drugs in accordance with the terms of a license. Nothing shall be added to liquor except in compounding in accordance with the terms of a license. Nor shall different kinds of liquors be mixed and sold under the denomination of one of them. All officers authorized to inspect depots and shops (vide condition 23 infra) are authorized to detain any liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs found unfit for consumption or use, or which they may believe to have been tampered with in any way, and all Collectors and Deputy and Assistant Commissioners of the Salt, Abkári and Customs Department are empowered to confiscate or destroy any liquor, opium, or intoxicating drugs unfit for consumption or use or which have been tampered with, and all liquor to which liquor of another description has been added and which is being offered for sale under the name of one of the liquors so mixed.

7. The sale or transport of liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs by persons below the age of 24 or by persons suffering from leprosy or any contagious disease and the employment of such persons in shops or depots for the sale of the same are prohibited. The Divisional Officer may, where necessary, call for the names of all persons employed or proposed to be employed in depots or shops and forbid the sale of liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs by any person of whom he may disapprove.

8. No depot or shop shall be opened before sunrise or kept open after 9 P.M. except under special authority. In Madras sales after 9 P.M. will be allowed only in special cases under separate licenses and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed by the Collector.

9. No drunkenness, disorder or gaming shall be permitted in depots or shops. Entertainments of any kind in depots or shops are also strictly forbidden.

10. No robbers or thieves or disorderly or riotous persons shall be harboured in depots and shops. Intimation of their resort thereto shall be given to the nearest Magistrate or Police officer.

11. No person shall be harboured in any depot or shop during the night.

12. Depots and shops situated on or adjacent to the line of march must be closed, if the Collector so orders, while a regiment or detachment of European or native soldiers is passing or is encamped in the vicinity. Collectors or Divisional Officers shall have power also to close any shops temporarily in times of religious excitement or disturbance. Every depot and shopkeeper shall on his own motion close his depot or shop when there is riot or disturbance in the neighbourhood.

13. The Collectors may order the transfer of depots and shops from one locality to another or their closure or the opening of new depots and shops within limits as to number to be fixed by the Board of Revenue in their discretion. But no new shops should be opened unless notice of the sites selected has been published in the District Gazette six months before the commencement of the lease and no such changes as affect the interests of adjacent shopkeepers shall be made during the currency of a lease except under special sanction of the Board. Tenholders may at any time permit the transfer of a shop within the limits notified for the shop in the sale notice.

14. The right is reserved to the Collector to grant "Occasional Licenses" for the sale of liquor, opium and intoxicating drugs, on the occurrence of fairs, festivals, etc., only in places in the vicinity of which there are no regularly licensed shops. This power in regard to country spirits and toddy may also be exercised by Divisional Officers. Such licenses should be issued only when absolutely necessary and shall ordinarily be granted to the shopkeepers who usually supply the locality or to the representatives of the renter. The licenses shall run only so long as they are actually required not exceeding ten days. Not more than one license shall be issued for a fair or festival without the sanction of the Board. The fees to be paid for the licenses shall be fixed at the discretion of the officers issuing them.

15. No liquor, opium or intoxicating drug shall be sold or given—

(a) Except at shops specially approved by the General Officer Commanding the Division (or Independent Brigade) or the Officer Commanding the Cantonment or Camp, and then only in respect

so such liquors as shall be approved by the same authority in consultation with the local Excise authorities and specified in the license—

(1) to sailors of the Royal Navy, soldiers and the members of their families, or

(2) to any other person living in barracks ;

(b) (1) to persons whom a vendor knows, or has reason to believe, to be camp followers, i.e., all classes of followers (other than private servants) whether on or off duty, who have a right to be in cantonments ; or

(2) to Policemen, Excise officers and Railway servants when on duty ; or,

(c) in any circumstances, to any—

(1) European vagrant under escort of the Police ;

(2) child under fourteen years of age ;

(3) insane person ; or

(4) person known or believed to be intoxicated.

Note.—The restrictions in (c) and (d) do not apply to Native soldiers, their families and followers when they are absent on leave from their regiments.

16. No privilege of supply or vend shall be sold, transferred or sub-rented without the Collector's previous permission. Nor, if the Collector so orders, shall any agent be appointed for the management of any such privilege without his previous approval.

17. No holder of any abkári or opium license will be allowed, without special permission from the Collector, to possess any interest in any abkári or opium license in any Native State or foreign territory or in any British territory where a low rate of duty is in force and which is adjacent to the district in which he holds his license.

18. Depots and shops must be kept open unless their temporary or permanent closure is authorised under condition 12 or 13 supra and such supply of liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs as the Collector may consider sufficient to meet local requirements must be maintained therein. Shops not opened by dates to be fixed by the Collector shall be liable to be resold at the risk of the licensees.

19. No liquor, opium or intoxicating drug shall be sold in shops except for cash. The licensee shall be bound to give intimation of the offer of anything other than cash to the nearest Magistrate or Police officer. This condition is not, however, meant to restrict credit sales in the ordinary course of business by shopkeepers or firms of standing and respectability dealing in foreign liquor for consumption off the premises.

20. No liquor, opium or intoxicating drug shall be sold either below or above such minimum * or maximum † prices as may be fixed for sale of the same in accordance with the law for the time being in force.

21. No liquor, opium or intoxicating drug in excess of the quantity prescribed ‡ for possession without a license shall be permitted to be removed by any person at any one time from any licensed premises without a valid permit, nor shall liquor or intoxicating drug be sold at wholesale depots in quantities less than the minima prescribed.

22. True accounts of transactions shall be maintained from day to day in ink in the prescribed form §. The accounts and permits shall be in printed books. The account books may be obtained from local Revenue officers on payment of cost price. The permit books can be obtained at all Circle offices on production of receipts for the payment of the cost price into a Government Treasury. Permits for liquor, opium or intoxicating drugs received and the counterfoils of permits issued must be carefully filed. The signing of blank permits for subsequent issue is prohibited. The accounts and counterfoils of permits shall be preserved for one year after the period covered by the license and shall be produced when called for by an officer not below the rank of Assistant Inspector of the Salt, Abkári and Customs Department.

23. Such returns and information as may be required by the Divisional Officer from time to time shall be furnished by holders of licenses.

24. Only such weights and measures as may from time to time be prescribed by the Commissioner of Salt, Abkári and Separate Revenue shall be possessed or used on any licensed premises, and they shall be tested and stamped by the stamping establishment of the district if the Collector shall so direct. The possession or use of weights or measures that are incorrect on any licensed premises will render the licensee liable to punishment.

25. The officers authorised to inspect licensed shops and depots are—

(1) any officer of the Revenue Department of rank not lower than Revenue Inspector, and

(2) any officer of the Salt, Abkári and Customs Department of rank not lower than Sub-Inspector.

§ The only toddy shops to which this condition applies at present are those in the Madras Town Circle.

These officers are empowered to enter and examine the premises, to test weights and measures in use and the liquor, opium and intoxicating drugs in the possession of the licensee, and to call for and check the accounts kept in the shop or depot. Police officers will also make inspections when it comes within the scope of their duty.

26. An inspection note-book, with the pages numbered consecutively, for inspecting officers to enter their remarks in, shall be maintained, and be handed over to the Inspector of the Circle or any officer authorized by him to receive it on a receipt being given therefor.

27. The amount for which the privilege has been purchased shall be payable in twelve equal monthly instalments into a Government Treasury on or before the 10th * of each month beginning with April or October as the case may be. Fees for depots should be prepaid.

28. No remission or abatement of the rent shall be claimable on any account whatever.

29. Any sum due by a licensee may be collected * under the Revenue Recovery Act or adjusted from the deposit, if any, made by him at the commencement of the lease. He shall be bound to replace any sums adjusted from his deposit within fifteen days of receipt of notice from the Tahsildar †.

30. Power is further reserved to Revenue officers to suspend * licenses in case of failure of payment of kists or (in the case of toddy) tree-tax also on the due dates. In the case of arrack, toddy, ganja and beer shops and taverns, this power will be exercised by Tahsildars, †, in the case of opium shops by Divisional Officers and in other cases by the Collectors.

31. In the event of suspension of a license for failure to pay arrears, the privilege of sale will be re-sold with effect from the date of issue of licenses to the new purchaser or otherwise disposed of at the Collector's discretion. All losses on account of suspension and re-sale or other disposal of the privilege shall be borne by the defaulting licensee, but he shall have no right to gain, if any, which accrues. The whole of the deposit, if any, made at the commencement of the lease will be liable to forfeiture. The officer who has power to suspend the licensee may, however, at his discretion, allow sales to continue pending re-sale or other disposal of the privilege.

32. Interest on all moneys due shall be payable at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum.

33. Infraction of any of the conditions of the license either by a licensee or by any person in his employment will entail on the licensee—

Either (a) fine up to Rs. 50, or (b) forfeiture of deposits, if any, and cancellation of license and re-sale or other disposal of the privilege at the risk of the licensee.

The licensee or his agent may also be prosecuted for the specific offence committed.

The rent for the whole lease shall become due at once, when a lease is cancelled under this condition.

Note.—For continuing breaches of a license, continuing fines may be imposed.

34. Any license may be forfeited and the privilege be re-sold or otherwise disposed of at the risk of the licensee if the licensee be convicted before a Magistrate of any offence against the Abkári / Opium Act, or of any offence under the Indian Penal Code, which in the Collector's opinion renders him unfit to hold it. The purchaser of a privilege is liable to the penalties prescribed in this condition if he is convicted of any such offence as above contemplated after the confirmation of the sale of the privilege to him though before issue of a formal license. Forfeiture of any license under this clause shall involve forfeiture of the balance of all deposits after payment to Government of all sums due under the lease.

35. Licensees are bound to report to the Divisional Officer all instances which come to their knowledge of persons employed by them in the manufacture, carriage or sale of liquor, opium and intoxicating drugs, committing breaches of the Abkári / Opium laws or of engagements entered into by them and to comply with the Divisional Officer's orders respecting the continued employment of such persons. No persons who have been convicted under the Indian Penal Code shall be employed in the carriage or sale of liquor, opium and intoxicating drugs without the Collector's previous permission.

36. Pecuniary dealings by licensees of any kind whatever with officials of the Salt, Abkári and Customs Department are absolutely prohibited.

37. With the sanction of the Board of Revenue, any license shall be revocable by the Collector at his discretion on giving the licensee fifteen days' notice of such revocation, in which case a proportionate part of the fee paid will be refunded.

38. All licensees shall be bound by any additional general rules that may be prescribed under the Abkári / Opium laws and, if so required by the Collector or any officer authorized by him, to deliver up their licenses for amendment or for the issue of fresh ones.

Conditions applicable to Arrack Licenses.

1. The privilege extends only to the sale of country spirits of the prescribed strengths. These are 30° under-proof and 60° under-proof, except in the tracts in the South Arcot district bordering on French territory where the liquor to be sold will be 40° under-proof.

2. Spirits shall be purchased only from a distillery or warehouse established by the contract supplier for the supply of the district or from a wholesale depot established by the contract supplier, or by a private person with the contract supplier's consent. The prices to be charged per gallon at the distilleries, warehouses and wholesale depots in the several districts are given below.

* Shops are liable to be re-sold for failure to pay kists only after the 20th. In the meantime, interest will be levied. In the Madras Town, however, separate orders are in force.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Proceedings of the Council of the Governor General of India, assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations under the provisions of the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 to 1909 (24 & 25 Vict., C. 67, 55 & 56 Vict., C. 14, and 9 Edw. VII, C. 4).

The Council met at Government House, Calcutta, on Tuesday, the 3rd January 1911.

and 60 Members, of whom 53 were Additional Members.

PRESIDENT'S OPENING REMARKS.

His Excellency THE PRESIDENT said:—"Your Honour and gentlemen, as this is the first occasion on which I have been called to preside over this Council, I should like to say how much I appreciate the honour and how deeply I feel the heavy responsibility that it entails.

"It is to me a source of sincere satisfaction that I am called upon to preside over the reformed Legislative Council, of which the merit is, I believe, largely due to the wisdom of my predecessor, Lord Minto. The extension of the elective system, the increase in the number of our members and the enhancement of our powers lend weight and interest to our deliberations, upon the result of which depend the happiness and welfare of so many millions of our fellow subjects. It is the duty of this Council to discuss subjects that are generally complex and sometimes contentious. It would be neither natural nor desirable that these questions should not provoke disagreement amongst us; but I hope and believe that a frank expression of opinions may assist us to understand each other and to appreciate one another's point of view. At the same time I trust that our deliberations may be animated by a spirit of mutual concession, and I am confident that I may count upon you, gentlemen, to assist me in maintaining the high standard of dignity and courtesy that has hitherto characterised the proceedings of this Council, and that is worthy of the high traditions of this assembly."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Hon'ble MR. DADABHOY asked:—

"A. Has the attention of Government been drawn—

(a) to the statement at page 16 of Mr. J. G. Cumming's Special Report on the Bengal Industries, Part II:

'The prohibitive rates against tanned goods on the Continent and America prevent any export';

(b) to the statement at page 182 of Mr. A. C. Chatterji's 'Notes on the Industries of the United Provinces':

'The sale among European visitors and tourists has also contracted owing, I was told, to a heavy import-duty in the United States and the continent of Europe', and

(c) to the statement at page 26 of Mr. G. N. Gupta's 'Survey of the Industries and Resources of Eastern Bengal and Assam':

'I am informed that about two or three years ago muga fabrics found a market in Australia, and consequently the trade in muga was very brisk for two or three years, but recently it appears heavy import-duties have been imposed on the Assam cloth, and therefore its sale in Australia has practically ceased'?

"B. Is it true that heavy import-duties are imposed in Europe and America on Indian tanned goods and gold and silver art wares, and in Australia on Assam muga? If so, what steps have Government taken or propose to take for the protection of Indian interests?"

The Hon'ble MR. ROBERTSON replied:—

"The attention of the Government of India has not been specially drawn to the three statements quoted. They are aware that heavy import-duties are imposed in some European countries and in America on tanned goods and gold and silver art wares. The import duty on Indian silk goods entering Australia has remained at 15 per cent. ad valorem for a number of years, and it would appear, therefore, that the recent decline in the export of silk goods to Australia cannot be attributed wholly to the rate of duty imposed.

"His Majesty's Government reserve the right of making such representations as they think suitable in the case of foreign or colonial tariffs which affect Indian interests; but the Government of India do not consider that it is desirable at present to move in the matter of making representations regarding the duties referred to by the Hon'ble Member."

The Hon'ble MR. DADABHOY asked:—

"Has the attention of Government been drawn to the following remarks at page 2 of Part I of Mr. J. G. Cumming's Special Report styled 'Technical and Industrial Instruction in Bengal':

'It is unfortunate that the Report of Mr. Collin was not formally published . . . . . Five years after its preparation I was informed, when I asked for a copy, that it was confidential'?

"Is Mr. Collin's Report still treated as confidential? If so, why so? Will Government be pleased to publish it?"

The Hon'ble MR. BUTLER replied:—

"Mr. Collin's Report will be found at page 188 and the following pages of the Selection of Papers, published in 1906, relating to Technical Education in India, 1886—1904, copies of which can be obtained from the Superintendent, Government Printing, India."

The Hon'ble MR. DADABHOY asked:—

"Has Government received an Irrigation Project for the District of Balaghat in the Central Provinces known as the Waingaga Project? Is the total estimated cost under seventy-five lakhs of rupees? Has it been sanctioned by Government? Is it the intention of Government to provide next year for its execution?"

The Hon'ble MR. CARLYLE replied:—

"The Waingaga project was received from the Local Administration on the 12th December 1910, and is now being examined. Its cost is estimated by the Local Administration at Rs. 36,83,045 for direct charges only and at Rs. 38,03,204 including indirect charges. Until it has been approved by the Government of India and sanctioned by the Secretary of State it would be premature to say when its execution will be commenced."

The Hon'ble MR. DADABHOY asked:—

"Is it true that the Japanese Government has manufacturing departments with the object of pioneering industries? Has the experiment been successful? If so, will this Government be pleased to try it for the introduction of new industries in India?"

The Hon'ble MR. ROBERTSON replied:—

"The Government of India have no knowledge of the establishment by the Japanese Government of manufacturing departments with the object of pioneering industries."

"As regards the last part of the question, efforts have in the past been made by Government to demonstrate, by State manufacture, the commercial merits of particular industries, for example, the aluminium and chrome leather industries. In view, however, of the strong protests received from the commercial public on the ground of possible competition of such ventures with private undertakings, and in pursuance of the policy which has recently been laid down by the Secretary of State with regard to the whole question of State assistance to the industrial progress of the country, the Government of India are not at present prepared to undertake experiments in this direction."

The Hon'ble MR. MADGE asked :—

"Will the Government be so pleased as to state whether all the places in the Enrolled List of the Financial (Accounts) Department that may under the existing rules be held by members of the domiciled community have been filled by members of that community; and, if not, whether any vacancies of the class referred to remain unfilled because no suitable recommendations for them have been made by competent authority?"

The Hon'ble SIR GUY FLEETWOOD WILSON replied :—

"I would refer the Hon'ble Member to the reply which I gave to him on this subject on the 20th of March last. There are no appointments in the Finance Department specially reserved for members of the domiciled community. Such candidates are appointed either after competition or by nomination; and several of them have been recruited in this manner."

The Hon'ble MR. MONTEATH asked :—

"Is it a fact that considerable cotton grain seeds traffic comes from Aligarh, Chandausi and Moradabad Districts to Bombay?

"Has the attention of Government been drawn to the fact that Bombay is at present suffering through the absence of a shorter route, and the difficulties of blocking rates, supply of rolling stock and delays of wagons?

"Will the Government be pleased to state whether it intends to set aside the question of the extension of the Nagda-Mattra line to Aligarh, and, if so, for what reasons? Will the Government be further pleased to state whether there is any objection to such extension other than that the East Indian Railway might ask for reinstatory measures?"

The Hon'ble SIR T. R. WYNNE replied :—

"On the authority of the statement made in the Bombay Chamber of Commerce's letter No. 827, dated the 25th September 1909, to the Government of Bombay, it may be accepted as a fact that a considerable trade in cotton-grain and seeds is now drawn from Aligarh, Chandausi and Moradabad Districts to Bombay.

"The attention of Government has been drawn to the statement made by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce that Bombay was suffering through the absence of a shorter route, the difficulties of blocking rates, the supply of rolling stock and delays to wagons, and that all these difficulties would be removed if one of the Bombay Railways constructed a line connecting Mattra with Aligarh.

"But in light of the admission by the Chamber that a considerable trade with Bombay from the districts referred to was being carried on, the inference is that the difficulties complained of were not practically very serious, and taking the claims of Calcutta into consideration it was probable that Bombay was receiving its fair share of the traffic.

"As at present advised, the Government of India are not prepared to permit one of the Railways, whose head-quarters are in Bombay, to construct a line from Mattra to Aligarh. If the line is eventually constructed, it will be by some other agency.

"Their reasons for this decision are :—

(1) That the construction of this line will practically cause no difference in the distances between Aligarh and Bombay by existing routes when the lengths of the present routes are compared.

(2) That a broad gauge line has been provided for in next year's programme from Biana, a station on the Nagda-Mattra Railway, to Agra, and this will afford a through broad gauge route from Aligarh to Bombay and avoid transhipment. The construction of this line will be put in hand at once.

(3) That although the objective is apparently only Aligarh, the practical effect of allowing a Bombay Railway to extend there would be to give them access to the whole of the northern area served by the Oudh and Rohilkhand and other Railways and cause a very severe dislocation of existing trade interests centering in Calcutta and other ports of India. The Government of India are not prepared to agree to take any steps which would produce the war of rates and measures of retaliation, which would certainly follow if a Bombay Railway extended to Aligarh, and consider the considerable trade which Bombay now admits it is drawing as a fair share of the traffic of the area it wishes to invade."

The Hon'ble MR. N. SUBBA RAO asked :—

"(a) Will Government be pleased to state whether the proposed contract with the South Indian Railway Company has been entered into by the Secretary of State?

"(b) Is it a fact that under clauses 8 and 9 of the said contract District Boards and other Agencies are placed at a great disadvantage in the construction of short circuit lines and branch lines, and that the principles embodied in the said clauses are likely to cause serious injury to District Boards in undertaking new lines and retard further railway development in Southern India?

"(c) Will Government be pleased to lay on the table a copy of the contract as finally agreed to and correspondence on the subject between the Madras Government, the Government of India and the Secretary of State?"

The Hon'ble SIR T. R. WYNNE replied :—

"The answers to the questions are—

"To (a) that the actual contract in legal form has not yet been finally signed by the Secretary of State and the South Indian Railway Company, but the general principles on which the contract is to be framed have been duly agreed to by both parties finally

"As regards (b) Government are not in a position to express an opinion on the points raised by the Hon'ble Member. I may point out that the new contract only came into force on the first of this month.

"To (c) it is not usual to make public the papers which, it is asked, should be laid on the table."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"(a) Has the attention of Government been drawn to the fact that various articles prepared in foreign countries and imported into India bear misleading descriptions, impressions or marks, calculated to cause the belief among purchasers and consumers that they were made in India?

"(b) Will Government be pleased to state whether such procedure is not opposed to the principles and provisions of the Sea Customs Act and the Merchandise Marks Act and the rules thereunder, and whether steps should not be taken, by legislation if necessary, to prevent misleading descriptions or impressions?"

The Hon'ble MR. ROBERTSON replied :—

"The Government of India are aware that attempts have from time to time been made to import into India articles made in foreign countries and bearing false trade descriptions calculated to cause the belief that they were made in India. The importation of such articles is prohibited by the Indian Merchandise Marks Act and the Sea Customs Act, and action is taken against the practice by the Customs-authorities at the various ports. The provisions of these Acts appear to the Government of India to be adequate for preventing the entry of such goods."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"Will Government be pleased to take into consideration the suggestion made in Resolution I passed at the Indian Industrial Conference held at Madras in December 1908, recommending the formation in each Province of an Advisory Board consisting of qualified officials and non-officials to advise the Local Government in regard to the introduction of new or development of existing industries, the carrying out of investigations and experiments with a view to such action, and the measures to be taken from time to time for promoting technical and industrial education suited to the resources and condition of the Province?"

The Hon'ble MR. BUTLER replied :—

"The appointment of Advisory Boards has been recommended in four Provinces—Madras, the United Provinces, Eastern Bengal and Assam and the Central Provinces—and the recommendation has been accepted by the Local Governments concerned. The matter is primarily one for Local Governments, who are interesting themselves in it."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"(a) Will Government be pleased to state what are the opinions elicited in the inquiries made some years ago about the feasibility and desirability of standardization and unification of weights and measures in this country?

"(b) Are there any serious difficulties in the way of action in this matter?"

The Hon'ble MR. ROBERTSON replied :—

"On a proposal for the unification of weights and measures in the Bombay Presidency being submitted to them by the Local Government, the Government of India, in January 1890, requested Local Governments and Administrations to submit information regarding the different weights and measures in use in the several Provinces, and to state their opinion as to the best system of weights and measures capable of being generally adopted, and the steps which should be taken to provide for its general application. Subsequently they forwarded for the consideration of Local Governments a scheme which had been suggested to them for the assimilation of English and Indian standards of weight by the adoption of a scale of weights based on a tola of 175 grains, which would have made a seer of 80 tolas exactly the equivalent of 2 pounds avoirdupois.

"The inquiries made by Local Governments showed that throughout India proper the tola of 180 grains was used almost everywhere as the basis of weighments. This was exactly the weight of a rupee, and in fact the papers showed that the rupee was largely used in weighing retail transactions. The scheme was objected to on the ground that the reduction of the tola from 180 to 175 grains would practically involve a corresponding reduction in the weight of the rupee, to which there were strong financial and other objections.

"As regards the general question of the introduction of a uniform system of weights and measures, there was much difference of opinion as to the advisability of taking such a course. The majority of Local Governments were opposed to the immediate prescription of weights and measures by law; they were of opinion that action in this matter should be taken gradually, the important municipalities taking the lead.

"As regards the last part of the question, I may point out that in a country where a variety of weights and measures is in use, the prescription of a system of weights and measures differing from those sanctioned by local custom is likely to occasion serious disturbance of existing conditions. It would also be extremely difficult to fix weights and measures which would be generally suitable; and even if it were possible to devise suitable standards, it would not be an easy matter to secure their adoption without recourse to measures of compulsion which would be undesirable in the circumstances of India."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"Is it a fact that the importance and remunerative character of the Basim-Akola Railway has been admitted and recognised for more than twenty years, and the earthwork over a considerable portion of which was done nearly fourteen years ago has not been taken up? If so, will Government be pleased to state why the said Railway project has not been taken up?"

The Hon'ble SIR T. R. WYNNE replied :—

"The Government of India are aware of the importance of the Akola-Basim Railway, and it is a project which is well forward in the list of lines to be undertaken at as early a date as funds permit."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"Now that the section between Shegaon and Nagpur is to be doubled, will Government be pleased to consider the desirability of taking the main line through Amraoti and so avoid the inconvenience of such an important town being on a short branch?"

The Hon'ble SIR T. R. WYNNE replied :—

"The Government of India have no objection to this suggestion being considered, but it must be pointed out that the change proposed would involve the abandonment of Badnera as an engine-changing station and all the works and staff buildings now in use there and the creation of a new engine-changing station at Amraoti.

"The interests of the residents of Badnera would also have to be considered."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"(a) Are the Government aware of the intense dissatisfaction caused amongst the bulk of the Hindu community by the publication of the Census Commissioner's circular in regard to the classification of their lower classes, and that public feeling has not been allayed by the issue of the communiqué on the subject?

"(b) Will the Government be pleased to state if the said circular was issued in compliance with the wishes expressed by any of the classes proposed to be classified on the new lines? If so, which, when and where?

"(c) Is the proposed new classification—or 'tabulation' as suggested in the communiqué—intended to serve any practical purpose in matters of administration or legislation; or whether it is being undertaken purely in the interest of scientific research?

"(d) If the object of the new scheme be the former, will the Government be pleased to state how and in what directions it is regarded as calculated to serve the end in view?

"(e) If the object of the new scheme be the latter, will the Government be graciously pleased to direct that the result of the forthcoming Census, in this particular matter, be classified and tabulated in strict conformity with the lines adopted at the last Census and that no departure be made therefrom?"

The Hon'ble MR. BUTLER replied :—

"(a) The Government of India are aware that the circular in question aroused hostile comment; but this was due to a misapprehension. It was thought that the circular contained instructions to exclude certain classes from the category of Hindus; but this was never intended. The Census Commissioner has already issued a communiqué explaining that the statements of all persons as to their religion will be accepted without demur, and that they will be classified accordingly in the Census Tables. It was never proposed to alter in any way the procedure followed in this respect at previous Censuses. The object of the circular was to consult Provincial Census Superintendents as to the feasibility of framing an estimate of the number of persons classed as Hindus who are not ordinarily regarded as such, and what standards should be adopted for the purpose. The circular contained no definite orders, nor will any decision be arrived at by the Census Commissioner until all the replies have been received and considered, together with the comments which have been made in the newspapers and elsewhere.

"The Government of India believe that any dissatisfaction caused by a misapprehension of the Census Commissioner's original proposal has been allayed by the issue of the communiqué alluded to.

"As regards sub-section (b) the question has not been raised by any of the classes concerned.

"(c) and (d). The object of the circular was to throw light on the statistics. It is clearly desirable that their precise bearing and signification should be explained.

"(e) As already stated, no change in the system of classification and tabulation is proposed."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Replying to a letter of the Anglo-Indian Association (dated the 9th March 1910), the Officiating Chief Secretary to the Government of the Lower Provinces in his letter (published in the papers) is alleged to have written that 'the Government of India has no objection to Government servants being members of the Anglo-Indian Association or serving on its Council, provided that if the Association actively engages in any political movement, members or office bearers who are Government servants shall abstain from taking part in it.'

"(a) Will the Government be pleased to state if that is a correct reproduction or interpretation of their order?

"(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to state if orders to the same effect have been or will be issued in favour of all other Government servants, granting them permission to join as members and act as office bearers of recognised political associations with the same limitation as that placed in the case of the Anglo-Indian Association?"

The Hon'ble MR. JENKINS replied :—

"(a) The answer to the first part of the question is in the affirmative.

"(b) No orders of a similar character have been issued, but, if any other reference of a like nature is made by a Local Government, the Government of India will consider it on its merits."

The Hon'ble Mr SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked:—

"In reply to a question put in the Lower Provinces Council on the 28th February last, requesting the publication of the Hon'ble Mr. Gourlay's Report on the Bettiah disturbances of 1908, the Hon'ble Mr Duke said that the Report was to be submitted, in due course, to the Government of India, and, that pending the receipt of the orders of that Government, the question of its publication could not be discussed.

"(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether they have received from the Government of the Lower Provinces the said Report and considered the same?

"(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to declare what steps they have either taken or propose to take in the matter?

"(c) Will the Government be pleased, in view of the public interests involved, either to publish the said Report or to direct that it may be published?"

The Hon'ble Mr. JENKINS replied:—

"The Government of India duly received from the Government of Bengal a report on the disturbances in the Champaran District which occurred in 1908. As the correspondence with the Local Government shows that the Lieutenant-Governor has taken steps which, in the opinion of the Government of India, are calculated to remove the grievances which appear to have afforded the occasion for these disturbances, they propose to take no action in the matter. The Government of India do not propose to publish their correspondence with the Government of Bengal on the subject."

The Hon'ble Mr. SINHA: "My question, my Lord, was not about the correspondence between the Government of India and the Government of the Lower Provinces, but about the publication of the Report, and I venture to ask if there is any harm in the publication of Mr. Gourlay's Report."

The Hon'ble Mr. JENKINS: "The Report is an essential part of the correspondence, and I am afraid we must adhere to our decision not to publish it."

The Hon'ble Mr. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked:—

"Has the attention of Government been called to the widespread dissatisfaction with many features of the present Regulations for election to the Imperial and several Provincial Legislative Councils and the declarations of the late Secretary of State and the late Viceroy that the Regulations would be modified in the light of experience?

"Will the Government be pleased to consider the desirability of revising the Regulations, and to state whether they will appoint Provincial Committees of qualified representatives of the different classes of the people and the several interests together with officials to investigate the changes needed, and make recommendations accordingly, and a similar Committee to revise the Regulations concerning the Imperial Legislative Council?"

The Hon'ble Mr JENKINS replied:—

"The Government of India are aware that dissatisfaction has been expressed by members of certain classes of the community with some of the features of the present Regulations for election to the Imperial and Provincial Legislative Councils. They are not, however, aware that any such general dissatisfaction has been expressed as is implied in the question of the Hon'ble Member.

"The Government of India in publishing the Reforms Scheme expressly stated that many of the details of the scheme might be found on trial to be unsatisfactory or capable of improvement, and that experience alone could show how far methods which were new to India could give the different classes and interests a measure of representation proportionate to their importance and influence, and to what extent an untried electoral machinery was suitable to the varying circumstances of the different Provinces and the numerous electorates. They added that defects would no doubt be discovered in the Regulations when they were put into operation, and that, if this proved to be the case, the law admitted of their amendment without difficulty. The late Secretary of State and the late Viceroy made similar observations.

"The Government of India have already called for reports from all Local Governments on the working of the Regulations and have invited suggestions, in the light of experience, as to any points in which they appear to call for revision. The reports of two Local Governments are still awaited. It is impossible for the Government of India at this stage to give any undertaking as to the measures which will be adopted to deal with the revision of the Regulations, should the reports of Local Governments show that it is needed, that will necessarily depend upon the nature of the revision which may be required."

The Hon'ble Mr. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked:—

"(a) Will the Government be pleased to say if their attention has been drawn to the Resolutions passed by the Government Industrial Conference at Gotacamund in 1908, the third, the fourth and the fifth Indian Industrial Conferences, the third South Indian Industrial Conference and the third and fourth United Provinces Industrial Conference, to the effect that existing railway rates on goods are generally excessive and affect injuriously indigenous industries in their competition with imported goods, and that Government may make an inquiry into the whole subject and obtain a reduction of the rates wherever these may be proved to be too heavy.

"(b) Is it a fact that the Governments of the United Provinces and Madras have addressed the Government of India on the subject? Have any other provincial Governments done the same? Will the Government be pleased to lay such report on the table with the replies thereto?

"(c) What action, if any, do the Government intend taking in the direction suggested, if none has already been taken?

The Hon'ble Sir T. R. WYNNE replied:—

"The reply to question (a) is that copies of the Resolutions referred to have been received by the Government of India except those of the third South Indian Railway Conference, and the fourth United Provinces Industrial Conference.

"In reply to question (b) the United Provinces Government have addressed the Government of India on the subject and the correspondence will be laid on the table, and it will show that the Railway Board have impressed it on the Railways that the subject is one that deserves their very careful consideration.

"The Government of Madras have not addressed the Government of India on this subject, and there are no papers to show that any other Local Government has done so.

"The answer to question (c) is that the subject is not one that can be dealt with by an inquiry, because in the first instance Government is not prepared to agree off-hand to the statement that existing railway rates on goods of indigenous origin are generally excessive, and secondly because no general conclusion could be come to which would assist in deciding what rates should be charged for indigenous commodities as compared with the rates for imported goods as the Railway Act does not admit of any distinction being made between these two classes of goods in the charges that may be made for their carriage.

"The Railway Act lays down that there shall be no undue preference, and this applies as much to indigenous goods desirous of ousting imported goods as to imported goods competing with indigenous. Railways under the Act cannot quote preferential rates for indigenous commodities and prohibitive rates for imported goods.

"Starting with the proposition that a producer requires certain railway rates to be charged to him to enable him to do business before a railway can agree to quote these rates, it has to determine if it can make any profit out of them and what the quotation involves in other directions, as it may affect other interests and also other producers of the same commodity in other districts.

"The only way in which such rates can be arrived at is to deal with such rate for each commodity as a separate proposition and examine carefully the many complications which arise due to the conditions under which it has to compete, the other interests affected and the value of the trade to the railway. The quotation of railway rates in fact is a very complex one, involving very many considerations, and often extremely difficult to deal with owing to conflicting interests.

"In light of these remarks the Government of India would not be justified in taking action in the direction desired, as the fixing of rates which should be sufficiently low to develop a trade is a matter concerning which the trader should, in the first instance, deal direct with the Railway Administrations concerned.

"As President of the Railway Board I feel justified, however, in saying that a railway is as anxious to secure new traffic to carry as a producer is to have it carried; and I feel sure that direct references by producers to Railway Administrations will, as a rule, secure a reduced rate for local industries if the existing rate is too high to enable business to be done, provided the railways can make some profit out of the reduced rate desired, which also must not render them liable to a charge of undue preference.

"But it must be appreciated that it is not the duty of railways to foster an industry which cannot be profitably carried on except at a permanent loss to the railway carrying its products. In such circumstances it is obvious that the proposed industry is not one that can be carried on under ordinary commercial conditions and is of a character which would not justify the Government of India using its influence to secure for it special treatment, even if this could be done without undue preference."

The Hon'ble Mr. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Will the Government be pleased to state the present stage of the discussion regarding the establishment of Agricultural Banks? What progress has been made with the scheme for the establishment of such a Bank in Bombay, which has been put forward by the Hon'ble Sir Vithaldas Thackersey and the Hon'ble Mr. Lalubhai Samaldas and is believed to have been accepted by the Secretary of State?"

The Hon'ble Mr. CARLYLE replied :—

"The Government of India have from time to time had under discussion schemes for the establishment of State-aided Agricultural Banks in India, but they have not hitherto been able to accept the schemes for the establishment of such banks which have been laid before them, and the only proposals of the kind which are now under consideration are those for the creation of the Bank in Bombay which is referred to by the Hon'ble Member. The scheme in question has not been accepted in its entirety by the Secretary of State and negotiations regarding it are still pending."

The Hon'ble Mr. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Will the Government be pleased to say if an amendment of the Co-operative Credit Societies Act is under consideration? If so, when an amendment Bill may be expected, and what are the principal changes that are to be introduced in the existing Act?"

The Hon'ble Mr. CARLYLE replied :—

"The Government of India have had under consideration the amendment of the Co-operative Credit Societies Act. Their proposals having been referred to the Secretary of State, I am not in a position at present to indicate the changes contemplated, but it is hoped that a Bill may be introduced and published either at the end of this month or in March next."

The Hon'ble Mr. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Will the Government be pleased to say (a) whether the modified scheme for the establishment of a Technological Institute at Cawnpore, which has been submitted by the United Provinces Government, has been accepted by the Government of India and forwarded for the sanction of the Secretary of State? And (b) whether the Local Government has expressed its inability to provide for its cost, and, if so, will the Government be pleased to help it to give effect to the scheme?"

The Hon'ble Mr. BUTLER replied :—

"The modified scheme for the establishment of a Technological Institute at Cawnpore, which has been submitted by the United Provinces Government, has been accepted by the Government of India, who are considering the extent to which assistance can be given to the scheme from Imperial revenues. The Secretary of State will shortly be addressed on the subject."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a comparative return showing the number of raids committed in the North-West Frontier Province in the years 1909 and 1910, the approximate value of the property looted and the number of men held to ransome with a statement of their nationality as well as the number of villages raided in these years respectively?"

The Hon'ble MR. WOOD replied :—

"The return is being compiled and will be laid on the table as soon as possible."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Since the creation of the North-West Frontier Province, were any Hindu-Mussalman riots reported in Peshawar City, before the one that took place in March last?"

The Hon'ble MR. WOOD replied :—

"The answer to the Hon'ble Member's question is in the negative."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"Will the Government be pleased to state how the North-West Frontier Province Administration proposes to allot the incidence of Rs. 5,000 for the maintenance of punitive police in Peshawar City for a year?"

The Hon'ble MR. WOOD replied :—

"The cost of the police post in question is Rs. 4,000 a month and not Rs. 5,000 as stated by the Hon'ble Member. The question of the allotment of the incidence of the charge is still under consideration."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA asked :—

"(a) Has the attention of the Government been drawn to the statement appearing in some of the Punjab papers that Afghan—a vernacular paper published at Peshawar—is in receipt of an annual subsidy from the Local Administration?"

"(b) Is it a fact that articles have appeared in that paper calculated to embitter feelings between the Hindus and the Mussalmans?"

The Hon'ble MR. JENKINS replied :—

"The answers to the questions are as follows :—

(a) The Government of India have noticed the report alluded to. They understand that the North-West Frontier Administration subscribe for a certain number of copies of the Afghan newspaper.

(b) The Government of India have no information as to whether any articles in the newspaper in question have been calculated to operate in the manner suggested; but they will ask the Local Administration to look into the matter."

The Hon'ble MR. SACHCHIDANANDA SINHA : "May I know how many copies have been subscribed for by the North-West Frontier Province Administration?"

The Hon'ble MR. JENKINS : We have no information as to that. I believe the subsidy amounts to some Rs. 600 a year."

The Hon'ble MR. SINHA : "My lord, the last question which stands in my name I defer for to-day. With reference to the conversation which I had with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, I withdraw it for the time being."

The Hon'ble MR. MONTEATH asked :—

"In view of the policy advocated by public bodies, will Government be pleased to state (1) if they intend to increase the actual holdings of gold in the Gold Standard Reserve, and (2) if such holdings are likely to be kept in this country?"

The Hon'ble SIR GUY FLEETWOOD WILSON replied :—

"I can only refer my Hon'ble friend to what I said on this subject in last year's Financial Statement. There has been no change in the position since then; and I do not at present anticipate that any addition will be made to the holding of gold in the Gold Standard Reserve or that any part of it will be kept in India."

The Hon'ble RAO BAHADUR R. N. MUDHOLKAR asked :—

"(a) Are Government aware of the complaint in certain manufacturing and trading circles that the rates for the carriage of goods on Indian Railways are, in view of the circumstances of the country, excessive, and press unequally and differentially on the same articles according as they are consigned from or to counting town or to interprovincial destinations?

"(b) Will Government be pleased to direct an inquiry to be made in regard to this matter, and if the complaints appear to be well founded to take steps for removing the same?"

The Hon'ble SIR T. R. WYNNE replied :—

"The Government of India do not agree that the rates for the carriage of goods on Indian Railways are, in view of the circumstances of the country, excessive. The rates which railways may charge are controlled by the maxima and minima rates fixed by the Government of India for each commodity, and railways may only make such changes as come within these limits.

"When fixing the maximum rate for any commodity Government take into consideration the value of the commodity in question and the volume of the traffic in it, and on these considerations they base their decision. The minimum rate is fixed on the basis of being a rate which will not entail traffic being carried at a loss and so avoid laying on the taxpayer the burden of paying for the loss that would result in the shape of interest charges being in excess of net revenue.

"With regard to the second part of the question, viz., that rates press unequally and differentially on the same articles, according as they are consigned from or to coasting towns or to interprovincial destinations, the Government of India are not prepared to admit that there are good grounds for the complaint.

"Railways being commercial undertakings have to be worked commercially, and one of the best-known principles of business is that for a large steady business you are prepared to make reductions in price.

"Traffic from and to coasting towns is, a rule, a big traffic carried a long distance with full loads, whereas interprovincial traffic or, as it is generally termed, local traffic, is comparatively small in tonnage, the distance carried is generally short and consignments do not readily run to wagon loads.

"Under these conditions the cost to railways of the carriage of goods to and from coast ports is much less than it costs them to deal with local traffic, and consequently there must be a difference in the rates charged.

"At the same time I feel justified in saying that Railway Administrations are ready to consider favourably any representations that may be made to them of cases in which local rates are considered to be too high, to enable a particular business to expand, for the simple reason that it is the railway's own interest to encourage the development of traffic.

"It may be added that in no country in the world do railways make the same charges for the carriage of articles carried under different conditions, circumstances and distances, and the steady development of the trade of India would appear to be a fair indication that the railway rates generally charged are such as trade can reasonably afford to pay.

"Taking Indian Railways as a whole, the average rate at which traffic is carried is the lowest in the world, and as a further indication that the rates charged are consistent with a fair return on capital, it is interesting to note that the net return on Indian railway capital expenditure was only 4·33 in 1908 and 4·31 in 1909, working expenses comparing very favourably with those of Railways in other countries.

"For these reasons the Government of India do not think it necessary to grant the inquiry asked for."

INDENTURED EMIGRATION TO NATAL.

The Hon'ble Mr. ROBERTSON said :—"With Your Excellency's permission I rise to make a statement on the subject of indentured emigration to Natal.

"The Council will remember that in July last a Bill was passed empowering the Governor General in Council to discontinue emigration to any country to which emigration is lawful, if he has reason to believe that sufficient grounds exist for prohibiting such emigration. The Governor General in Council has had under his consideration the question of discontinuing indentured emigration to Natal, and he has arrived at the decision that emigration to that country should no longer be permitted.

"The decision has been taken in view of the unsatisfactory position which has been created by the divergence between the Indians' and the Colonists' standpoints and by the absence of any guarantee that Indians will be accepted as permanent citizens of the South African Union after expiration of their indentures. In all the circumstances the Governor General in Council is satisfied that emigration to Natal should be discontinued as he cannot allow the present unsatisfactory situation to be perpetuated. He therefore proposes to publish a notification on the 1st April next prohibiting indentured emigration to Natal with effect from the 1st July 1911."

The Hon'ble Mr. GOKHALE said :—"My Lord, I am sure the Council has listened with the utmost satisfaction to the statement made by the Hon'ble Mr. Robertson, and I trust Your Excellency will permit me to express on behalf of the non-official members our sense of deep gratitude for the decision at which the Government of India have arrived in this most important matter. The announcement made today by the Hon'ble Member will evoke but one feeling throughout this country, and it will be a feeling of sincere and enthusiastic appreciation. The decision of the Government removes from the difficult question of the treatment of Indians in South Africa an important factor which was responsible for much soreness of feeling. It also does more. It furnishes to my countrymen a striking object lesson of the manner in which the Government will not hesitate to take any action that has become necessary in furtherance of our interests and for the assertion of our self-respect, even when it involves inconvenience and possible injury to the interests of a self-governing English colony. My Lord, I heartily congratulate the Government on the step which they have taken."

INDIAN FACTORIES BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. ROBERTSON moved that the Bill to consolidate and amend the Law regulating labour in Factories be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Clark, the Hon'ble Mr. Syed Ali Imam, the Hon'ble Mr. Graham the Hon'ble Mr. Dadabhoy, the Hon'ble Mr. Gokhale, the Hon'ble Sir Vithaldas Thackersey, the Hon'ble Mr. Andrew, the Hon'ble Mr. Quin, the Hon'ble Mr. Gates, the Hon'ble Mr. Phillips, the Hon'ble Sir Sassoon David, the Hon'ble Mr. Macpherson, the Hon'ble Mr. Fremantle, the Hon'ble Mr. Madholkar, the Hon'ble Mr. Birkmyre and the mover. He said :—"I think, my Lord, that at this stage I need not take up the time of Council with any lengthy statement on this Bill, the history of which will be familiar to the greater number of Hon'ble Members present. When the late Mr. Harvey introduced this measure in July 1909, he explained in full detail the successive steps which had led up to it and the principles on which the proposed legislation was based; and I scarcely think that I can add anything to the argument which he laid before Council with such completeness and lucidity. Since that time every opportunity has been given for the fullest criticism of the Bill. It was printed and published as soon as possible after its introduction, and has been circulated to Local Governments in order that it might be brought to the notice of owners of mills and factories throughout the country. Criticisms, comments and suggestions in considerable numbers have been received in reply, all of which have been printed and are in the hands of Hon'ble Members. The Government of India have given these suggestions their most careful consideration. Some of them they are able to adopt, and amendments with that object will be moved on behalf of Government in Select Committee. But I ought to say at once that nothing since the Bill was introduced has been brought to the notice of Government which could lead them to reconsider the decisions already arrived at on important points of principle, such as the proposed restriction of hours of labour of male adults in textile factories. Those provisions of the Bill we must maintain; but it is our earnest desire and intention that, given the attainment of these essential objects, no unnecessary burden should be placed upon the industries concerned, and I can assure Hon'ble Members that with this aim in view we have examined the suggestions made to us in a sympathetic spirit and with a real wish to meet them whenever possible. We shall gladly welcome in Committee suggestions which will help us to attain this end. In selecting the names of Hon'ble Members who have been invited to serve on the Committee, we have been careful to secure a strong representation of the factory interests involved, and I am sure the Hon'ble Members in question, whatever their views on the main provisions of the Bill, will co-operate loyally with Government in their desire to save the industries concerned from any unnecessary friction and expense.

"One other point I may mention. There will be a considerable number of Government amendments to be moved in Committee, partly to meet representations made to us, partly on purely drafting matters, and we propose to have them printed and placed in the hands of Members of the Committee before it meets. Such a course will, I think, be to the convenience of the Hon'ble Members concerned, and it will certainly be a great assistance to Government if they in their turn could follow the same practice, and give as early notice as they can of any amendment they may wish to propose. I hope they may be able to meet us in this matter."

The Hon'ble SIR SASSOON DAVID said:—"My Lord, I am glad to see that the Bill has been referred to Select Committee; but I crave Your Lordship's permission to offer a few remarks on the Bill before the Council. I have very carefully considered the provisions of the Bill, which was introduced into the Council by the late Mr Harvey, and am glad to say that I am able to give it my full support except in respect of one important proposal, namely, the proposal to restrict the hours of adult male labour by legislation.

"My Lord, I contend, in the first place, that no case whatever has been made out in favour of the proposed restrictions of the working hours of mill-hands. The report of the last Factory Commission conclusively showed that the cry of sweating in cotton-mills was unfounded, and that the operatives had not suffered in any way on account of overwork. So far as the actual state of things at the present day is concerned, there is no need for a law restricting the working hours of labourers.

"The Factory Commissioners were of opinion that there was only one class of labourers who were likely to be injuriously affected by such occasional long hours as prevailed in some Bombay factories during the exceptional days of 1905, and that was the class of persons between 14 and 17 years of age. They accordingly proposed to constitute such persons into a separate class, called 'the young persons' class, and to restrict their hours to twelve. But the Bill before us makes no distinction whatever between 'young persons' and adults. It puts them on the same footing, and extends the limitation proposed by the Commission for 'young persons' only to adults also.

"I venture to think that such an extension should be supported by weightier arguments than those by which the late Mr. Harvey supported it. It must be shown that the adults are likely to suffer to the same extent as young persons, and it must further be shown that they were powerless to protect themselves. As a matter of fact, however, we had no proof whatever of those things. The late Mr Harvey merely observed that the creation of 'a young persons class' would involve some amount of administrative inconvenience, and that, therefore, it was decided to limit the hours of adult males also.

"My Lord, I fully agree that administrative convenience is an important consideration which the legislature should never lose sight of. But it is not the only nor the most important consideration that we have to keep in view, and surely nobody would say that the industrial interests of the country should be subordinated to administrative convenience. The administrative inconveniences referred to by Mr. Harvey can be avoided, and have been avoided, in Great Britain, by means of a competent supervising agency such as that proposed by the late Factory Commission.

"But, my Lord, we have been told that the example of Great Britain does not apply to India, because in England labour is highly organized. The implication seems to be that if labour were not so organized, the hours of adult labourers would have been limited by direct legislation. Labour organizations in England are of much later growth than factory industries, and I am not aware that at any time previous to such organizations the hours of adult labourers were restricted by law. That, however, is by the way. If the existence of labour organizations is a reason why adult male labour is not restricted in England, cannot these organizations be left to protect women and children and young persons also? Are we to suppose that the intelligent working men of England are so utterly lost to the duties they owe to their wives and sisters and children that they would not use the power their organizations give them to protect their kith and kin as well as themselves?

"No, my Lord, it is incorrect to say that the reason why there is no time-limit for adult operatives in England is because they have their labour organizations and do not need it. The real reason is that the direct restriction of hours of adult males would be an interference with their personal liberty, which would not be tolerated. My Lord, it is a mistake to suppose that the Indian mill-hand—at any rate the Bombay mill-hand of whom I can speak with knowledge—is a helpless tool in the hands of his employer. Unlike the English factory labourer, the Indian mill-hand is not entirely dependent on the mills. He can, and often does, turn his hands to agriculture, domestic service and other occupations when he is dissatisfied with or unable to find work in mills. Moreover, the demand for labour is so much greater than the supply that a mill which sets itself against the sentiment of its workers will soon find itself in a difficult position.

"I am in entire sympathy with Government in their laudable desire to ensure the health and well-being of the labourers in factories. All that I say is, 'Let not a principle which has been found objectionable in England be recognized in our legislation.' My Lord, I do not want to tolerate sweating—excessive hours—if it does not involve any restriction of the liberty of the individual adult worker. Any such forms is that suggested by the Factory Commission. There is another way of effecting the same result, which I would be glad to submit for the consideration of the Select Committee. I earnestly trust, my Lord, that Government will not insist on carrying the Bill in its present form, and I am sure that, by modifying the Bill in regard to this point, Government will have the satisfaction of achieving their great and humane object with the support and approval of all."

The Hon'ble Mr. DADABHOY said :—"My Lord, I crave leave to offer a few observations on the principle of the Bill before it is referred to a Select Committee, reserving a detailed examination of the provisions when it comes up for final consideration. I have every hope, in view of the strong appeals and representations of the manufacturing public, the Select Committee will make large changes in the Bill, and will ultimately present it in a form less likely to provoke adverse criticism. I feel at the same time that a non-official Member can only hope to influence the Government policy underlying any provision of a Bill at this stage. Experience shows any substantial revision of a Bill after the Select Committee's report is impracticable.

"The mere changes proposed in the existing law, I may at once say, have my support. But as a representative of the people I must voice the popular discontent that the Bill has caused on account of its numerous drastic and unsuitable provisions. In my opinion, the Bill in certain respects is too ambitious in purpose, too comprehensive in scope, and too elastic in language. It attempts a radical change in the present Act. I fully realise the difficulty of the Hon'ble mover of the Bill—the late Mr. Harvey, whose untimely death this Council most deeply mourns; I am also prepared to concede that it is almost impossible to frame a law the details of which will meet with universal approval; but it is certainly possible for Government to so regulate legislation by following the line of least resistance as to carry the community with it simultaneously with effecting the necessary reform. Unnecessary legislation is worse than useless. It defeats its own object by alienating public sympathy and support. The necessity for an amendment of the existing law should be clearly established and the object must be beyond cavil. The question is, does the Bill before the Council satisfy these requirements of wholesome and progressive legislation? I am afraid the answer can only be in the negative. And what is worse is that the Bill has already aroused suspicions among the people of an ignoble genesis. People unfortunately suspect that the anxiety for the protection of Lancashire interests determines and colours the policy of the Bill.

"My Lord, I feel I would be remiss in my duty to the country in general and to my constituency in particular if I omitted to enter my emphatic protest against one of the principal features of the Bill. Hon'ble Members of Council are fully aware that public opinion distrusts it, and that there exist in the public mind misgivings about the proposed limitations on adult labour. The curtailment of the freedom of action of the citizen must always be regarded as a serious encroachment upon civic right, the gravity of which is enhanced in the present instance by the questionable method by which it is proposed to be done. A Bill like the one now before the Council, the principal aim of which is to limit the working hours of adults and children in textile factories, under ordinary circumstances might perhaps have received some measure of support from the commercial public and the non official Members of Council; but the incidental circumstances have made the Bill highly unpopular. Apart from the fact that, rightly or wrongly, there is considerable doubt in the public mind as to the ultimate object and the probable effect of the Bill, the Government has selected a most inopportune time for the amendment of the law and for the introduction of legislative restrictions. I fully appreciate the humanitarian motives that have inspired the Bill, and no right-thinking citizen will impute ungenerous motives to Government; but it must be admitted that the Indian Government, which has imposed and maintains a countervailing excise-duty on indigenous cotton goods to propitiate Manchester, cannot reasonably hope to avoid some measure of hostile and unpleasant criticism of its action, and of misinterpretation of its solicitude for the well-being of the labouring classes.

"But ignorant and captious criticism apart, there are serious matters for the consideration of Government. Humanitarian considerations alone should not determine Government action. There is no room for moral idealism in administration. The principle of non-interference with private contracts is a recognised canon of enlightened administration. The freedom of the capitalist and the labourer to enter into agreements which they think desirable and mutually advantageous should be respected unless they outrage the moral sense of the community. The point ought to appeal to Government.

"The Government of India needs a very strong and unassailable case to be made out before it launches on legislation of such exceptional nature, more particularly when the underlying policy is opposed to clear and definite pronouncements of high authorities made in and out of this Council. I must recall here the assurance given in this Council by one of our former Viceroys, Lord Lansdowne, when the Factory Act of 1891 was on the tapis. 'We believe,' remarked the noble Marquis, 'that the effect of our measure will be to place factory labour in India on a proper footing, and our Bill will be accepted here and at Home, not, as the Hon'ble Mr. Nugent would have us believe, as a mere prelude to still further restrictions, but as a settlement as final as any settlement of such a question can be.' But, alas, the prophecy of the late Mr. Nugent has proved true, and that too within a few years of the emphatic averment of one of the most brilliant and respected of Indian Viceroys.

"My Lord, I do not contend that an assurance like the one just referred to, coming through from the august head of the Government of India, should tie the hands of all succeeding Viceroys and debar them from revising any law in the light of new experience or altered conditions; neither do I deny that the demand for limiting the hours of adult labour may be justifiable under special circumstances; but we cannot overlook the fact that in the West it is viewed as a stretch of power for any Government to arrogate to itself the duty of determining the number of hours in a day an adult labourer may work. It is conceivable that the state may under grave and exceptional circumstances regulate the conditions of employment at adult labour, but it is equally true that it is the birthright of every man to pursue his own interests in his own way. If there is one principle which is universally acknowledged and respected in all civilised countries, it is the right of the individual to fix of his own free will the hours of work. Every man is the master of his time and energy; their application must be left to be determined by individual volition. In England, State interference with adult labour is known only to a very limited extent. Operatives working in an atmosphere of bisulphide of carbon and railway employés under the Act of 1893 only are protected against heavy and continuous work at the discretion of the Board of Trade. The form which State control has taken in England is of a light, elastic, non-irritating kind. If we examine the history of the protective legislation of the last sixty years, we find that it has only aimed at prohibiting the employment of children and women beyond a certain number of hours, and in the case of the former, in addition to a minimum limit of age, it imposes certain educational tests. The cardinal principle on which State interference has been justified and has throughout proceeded is that the State is bound to protect those who are not in a position to protect themselves. The obligations of the State to the working man extend so far and no further, and the working classes at Home would not permit or tolerate any interference with the conditions of employment of adult male labour. Public opinion there among the adult factory population does what it does not do in any other country—it draws a sharp and well-defined line beyond which legislative interference with the right of free contract of the employer and the employed cannot go. Wherever State interference with adult male labour has been tried or attempted beyond the above limits, it has signally failed.

"The provision in the Bill regarding the imposition of restrictions on adult labour is not justified by the conditions of work now prevailing in this country. The Bill introduces a novel principle which has only been very recently adopted in England in the case of a special class of workmen. The Indian textile industry has not yet completely passed through its infant stage; it has yet to grow up to vigorous youth. The present depression is severe and trying. The conditions of manufacture are anything but encouraging. The Bill will have the effect of still further hampering the millowners in their already unfair and unequal competition with the foreign producer, and industrial progress will be most certainly impeded and endangered by the proposed limitation of working hours.

"It is not even suggested that any change in the existing law is demanded by the labourers themselves, or that the circumstances are such as would make it imperative on Government to undertake it. The Hon'ble Mr Harvey candidly admitted that, a few years ago, at the previous inquiry the operatives, in language clear and unequivocal, protested against any legislative interference. There does not appear to have been any subjective change in them during the interval. The last inquiry did not elicit any special repugnance to long hours on the part of the millhands. Besides, I do not admit that the charge of working long hours habitually and detrimentally to the physical interests of the labourers has been proved against the textile industries in India. Even the verdict of the Factory Commission on that point is neither conclusive nor definite. Their verdict is virtually the Scotch verdict of 'not proven'

"The Factory Commission of 1890, which was presided over by so competent, zealous and experienced an officer as Dr. Lethbridge, examined very minutely and with care the question of the working hours of the mills, and it arrived at the conclusion 'that there is nothing in the conditions under which Indian operatives work which calls for any legislative restriction as to the hours an adult male may choose to work Nor can we conceive any conditions which can ever call for State interference in this matter.' The Commission of 1908, to which Mr. Harvey paid a just and warm tribute, also came to the decisive conclusion that it would not be justifiable to resort to a measure which found favour in very few countries, and that only under exceptional circumstances, and which would be fraught with many difficulties and would cause considerable inconvenience in practical working That Commission very pertinently remarked that 'we do not consider that any case has been made out in favour of applying a principle which is admittedly of somewhat doubtful validity, which commands acceptance in very few countries, which is open to the gravest objections from a practical point of view, and which supplies a remedy very much more drastic than the circumstances of the case demand.

"Dr. Nair, who took up a unique position in regard to this matter on the Commission, and whose dissenting Minute I have read with interest, invoked the authority of Adam Smith to strengthen his position, and cited the case of France and Switzerland for precedent. It is now a matter of history that State interference as regards adult labour has completely broken down in the United States; in Germany and France it has paved the way for socialism and its attendant evils, and in Switzerland, where it was tried as far back as 1877, it has proved wholly unsuccessful. Mr. Fawcett and other authorities whose opinions are entitled to considerable weight even go the length of asserting that the power which the law assumes in the case of women is an infraction of an immutable principle of legislation, and derogates from the right of free contract involved in the right of free citizenship.

"My Lord, it behoves us then to examine the grounds on which the Government has undertaken this legislation It is urged that the introduction of electric installation in almost all mills since 1891 has placed a strong temptation in the way of millowners and agents, that the security which the Government formerly had has entirely disappeared, and that both operatives and their employers are likely to be tempted to extend the average working day of twelve hours to an inordinate length It is also urged that, though there is no proof that the operatives have suffered in the past by long working hours, the past and the present conditions of work in textile factories are such as are indubitably calculated to cause deterioration in the physical condition of the factory population; that both the Commission and Government are confirmed in this opinion by the noticeable absence of elderly men in textile factories, in spite of the fact that the demand for labour is much in excess of the actual supply; and that these are circumstances which impose a duty on Government by legislative direction to fix a twelve hours day to prevent overwork in mills. It is conceded that the abuse of employing operatives for excessive hours is not general, that the evils which the Government hopes to avert by parental legislation is not of a deep-rooted or chronic nature, that before and since 1895 there has not been a wanton infraction of the conventional twelve hours' rule, and that, except in a few isolated instances, the mills in India work an average of twelve hours and seven minutes per day. It is therefore more the apprehension of possible prospective delinquencies than past lapses on the part of employers of labour in textile factories that has induced Government to undertake this legislation. But this basis of legislation is wrong on principle and is not sanctioned by precedent. All legislation of a penal or prohibitive character can only be justified by the presence of chronic abuses, and when the evil is of a widespread nature and grave enough to imperil the safety of the community. Restrictive legislation, conceived though in a benevolent spirit, which seeks to fetter individual discretion with a view to prevent possible abuses, may perhaps be justified by over-prudence, but the action is capable of misconstruction At best it is a policy of doubtful expediency, militating as it does against the salutary principle of least interference with the liberty of the people which animates enlightened administration.

"It is unfortunate, my Lord, that the isolated events of 1905 should provide ground for restricting the working hours of adult male labour by legislative interference; that the exceptional history of a year of abnormal activity in one industry should be made the pivot for an indictment against the textile industries in general. I do not defend the millowners of Bombay for working excessive hours in 1905; neither do I commiserate with the Mill Owners' Association in their inability to enforce any rules of a restrictive character on delinquent individual proprietors and agents then. But I ask, was the abuse after all so serious, so glaring, so deep-rooted, so common and so chronic as can only be prevented by enactment of a prohibitive character? In judging of the exceptional circumstances of that year, I ask Government to scrutinise them in the light of the history of the industry previous and subsequent to the eventful year 1904–1905. It is a matter of common knowledge that before 1904–1905 the mill industry of India had passed through a series of bad years extending over a decade. The depression during those years was disheartening and disastrous. The Indian cotton industry was suffering greatly from competition with producers of foreign goods. Most of the mills did not pay even the most modest dividend for years together. The capital debt on almost all concerns had steadily and unsubstantially increased. Many of them were without funds to carry on their ordinary work. Several mills had to change hands, and many others were sold up by auction at one-fifth or one-sixth of the original cost. Others had gone into liquidation, and many agents and proprietors had practically become insolvent. The depression then disappeared and the sky brightened for the industry, but, alas, only for a short spell. The prosperity was ephemeral. The halcyon days hardly extended beyond a year-and-a-quarter. Then bad times came again; and the adversity was so severe as to daunt even the stoutest of hearts. In 1907 troubles began anew, and, as it is now well-known, the years 1908 to 1910 brought in their train untold misery. The cotton industry is now again passing through a period of depression, unprecedented in the history of any trade within the memory of any living man. My Lord, I now ask, was there in 1905 no justification for work at high pressure,—was there no redeeming feature in the fact that employers and operatives in Bombay and Agra only strove by mutual consent to recoup as far as possible their exhausted resources during a brief and fugitive interval of prosperity? I ask, further, if any other country, similarly circumstanced, would not have, under similar conditions, adopted similar methods and acted in a similar way? Have not we before us the example of England having acted similarly are this? Is overtime or long hours, under market conditions peculiarly favourable, unknown in England? If one is in need of a precedent of recent date, one has only to read the trade reports of England during the Russo-Japanese War, and particularly of the feverish activity prevailing at the time in the numerous gigantic workshops of the Iron Princes of that great country. Moreover, what justification is there for fettering all factory labour by one uniform, rigid and restrictive rule of a limited working day in a vast country like India? It is not easy to see why Bengal, Madras or the Central Provinces should be penalised for the sins of Bombay and Agra, supposing they are grave and unpardonable. If the Government has conclusive proof of the presence of chronic abuses in one or more industrial centres, legislation in fairness cannot go beyond the local requirements of these places. Further, my Lord, has not the delinquent Bombay been contrite for its past excesses? Has it not given satisfactory promise of future moderation? Has not the Commission wherever it has gone received solemn assurances and definite pledges both from employers and operatives that the transgressions of 1908 will not be repeated? Overtime means more money for the operatives; it is a popular method of eking out the wages. Legislative interference of the kind contemplated in the Bill cannot be agreeable to the mill population. The only excuse therefore for so ambitious change in the law is wanting.

"A legitimate demand for the restriction of hours can only arise when it is widely felt that factory life under present conditions presses heavily upon the millhands and undermines their health. It is possible the proposed Bill if passed into law will be productive of a modicum of good, but if the Government hopes that it will appreciably prolong the lives of operatives or really improve their health, I am afraid Government will be disappointed. The present conditions of work at mills are neither severe nor oppressive, regard being had to the easy habits and character of the Indian workmen. An Indian operative is not capable of concentrated or continuous labour, or of prolonged and sustained effort. He is by nature not disposed to take his work serously; he has an incurable habit of spreading the work he has to perform over a long period of time; he invariably works in an easy, careless, perfunctory manner, he must needs loiter in the midst of work; and, he, as though intuitively, makes up for prolonged hours of work by being slack during no inconsiderable portion of his routine labour. His work is done neither with strenuousness nor alacrity, and compares most unfavourably with the standard enforced in European countries. He is likewise not amenable to rules of strict discipline, and strongly resents any interference with his method of work. The employer of labour in this country is wholly at the mercy of his operatives. There is always a much larger demand for labour than the actual supply; it is the employer who competes for labour and the operative who dictates terms. The feature of Indian factory labour has impressed even the Commission, which observes that, in addition to the statutory midday interval, the worker in a textile factory spends from one-and-a-half to two hours of the actual working day in eating, smoking, bathing and sleeping. He also gets the statutory Sunday holiday in addition to several Indian holidays during the year, and many of the workmen take much longer holidays, varying from one to three months each year, in order to spend the savings in their rural homes. It was only the other day stated in the House of Commons by the Master of Elibank that 'in the East labour is not organised as it is in Britain, and is not continuous but intermittent and spasmodic.' We must distinguish between 'a steady toiler who is ready to begin work on the first beat of the engine, and a saunterer who,' according to Lord Morley, 'watches the minutes like a lazy schoolboy'. The late Mr. Harvey was pleased to confirm in this Council what the Commission had recorded in the report, that it had been struck by the 'marked absence of elderly men in these factories,' in spite of the proved fact that the demand for labour was generally in excess of the supply. I regret that the Commission did not carry the analysis further. This phenomenon is not idiosyncratic to mill industry. If the Commission had examined the facts connected with industries other than the textile industry, it would have noticed a similar state of affairs. Elderly men are, in the first place, not common in India. According to actuarial calculation, the average of Indian life is 24 years as against 64 in the West. In the next place, it is a matter of common knowledge that an Indian operative, whatever the field of his employment, when he passes the wrong side of forty, abandons all manner of toilsome work, retires to his village to spend his days in comparative ease and is dependent on his children or other working members of his family. Again, an operative often divides his time between the pursuit of agriculture and toil in a textile factory. There is no factory population in India. Even in the Presidency-towns you will hardly find any appreciable number of operatives altogether detached from agriculture and village life and other rural occupations. The Commission is explicit on this point: 'In almost all cases his hereditary occupation is agriculture; his home is in the village from which he comes, not in the city in which he labours; his wife and family ordinarily continue to live in that village, he regularly remits a portion of his wages there; and he returns there periodically to look after his affairs, and to obtain rest after the strain of factory labour. There is yet practically no factory population, such as exists in European countries, consisting of a large number of operatives trained from their youth to one particular class of work, and dependent upon employment at that work for their livelihood.' My Lord, the day is still far distant when in this country we shall have a distinct class of factory operatives altogether detached from agricultural pursuits and rural occupations, depending exclusively upon industrial employment as a means of subsistence. The absence of elderly millhands thus imports nothing.

"On the crucial question whether the present conditions of employment have produced physical deterioration, it may be stated that, despite the constant and careful attention the Commission paid to this matter, they were unable to detect any such indication among the adult operatives. The verdict of the majority of the Commission is that the evidence before them did not justify the conclusion that there had been deterioration in physique on account of excessive hours, and, in the case of non-textile factories, they considered the evidence to be conclusive against this view. This conclusion of the Commission is supported to a certain extent by statistical information, and, though its value was discounted by the drawback that vital statistics in India ordinarily do not differentiate between the general mass of workmen and those engaged in the textile industry, the Commission was in a position to compare the death-rate among factory operatives with that prevailing among the working classes generally. The comparison has revealed the important and suggestive fact that mortality among millhands during the seven years preceding the report was considerably smaller than that among the general operatives. Dr Turner, who was a member of the Textile Factory Labour Committee, and whose opinion is always entitled to weight by reason of the exceptional opportunities he had of acquiring information, is decidedly of opinion that 'the factory population is not below the average of the same class as regards physique.' I cannot resist the temptation of quoting here one important passage from the note of Lieutenant-Colonel Mactaggart, who was a member of the Commission and whose valued and expert opinion constitutes in my opinion a complete answer to the unjustifiable charge of overworking the operatives. 'On the whole I must emphatically say that, in my opinion, it cannot be said with truth that the hours now worked in the Bombay factories have any injurious effect on the health of the operatives. Whether on moral, moral, or political grounds it is advisable to take steps to limit the working hours for adult males in factories is another question; but my opinion, founded on what I saw and heard while a member of the Commission in the Bombay Presidency, is that there exist absolutely no real grounds, medical or otherwise, which would justify Government in directly limiting the hours of adult male labour in factories by legislative enactment.' It is clear therefore that existing conditions are not injurious to the health of the operatives, and that restrictive legislation cannot be justified on hygienic grounds. In my opinion the Commission takes its stand on uncertain, controversial and hypothetical ground when it asserts that continuous work for 14½ hours a day under conditions stated above must lead to the deterioration of the physique of the working classes and render factory work so unpopular as to make it difficult in time to obtain a labour supply commensurate with the economic and industrial needs of the country. This sort of à priori argument, always inconclusive and elusive from vagueness, is singularly out of place in a practical debate. Mr Harvey indeed said something pertinent when he claimed protection for operatives in this country, devoid as they are of all organisation. It is true, my Lord, Indian operatives have no organised trade unions; but we have only to superficially scan the recent history of many industrial centres to discover that they, though not backed up by regular unions and associations, fully comprehend the methods of, and can engineer, local strikes. When they do break out they are most ungovernable; they get completely out of hand, and masters are powerless to control them. The difficulty of the employer of labour is considerably enhanced by the operatives failing to disclose the real cause of their discontent, refusing to formulate any definite demand, and often not knowing their own grievances. The time will come when organised trade unions will be in effective operation even in this country. In any case I cannot help pointing out that where labour is not organised the procedure adopted by Government for its protection by limiting the hours is not the only practical and conceivable method, or even a well-advised method.

"Mr Harvey, in his speech in this Council, sought to justify the introduction of restrictive legislation by urging that the Factory Commission had, by providing for the direct limitation of hours in the case of young persons, sanctioned by implication the principle of direct limitation in the case of adult labour. In my humble opinion this is a forced construction—a non sequitur. I think it will not be disputed that there is a sharp distinction between a recommendation limiting the hours of labour for young persons and direct legislative action for enforcing short hours upon adult operatives. If that recommendation of the Factory Commission be accepted, it may probably be that the ultimate effect of legislative protection to juvenile labour would also limit in practice the hours of adult labour, but it can only be indirectly, through its economic influence upon the industry. It is one thing to induce employers through pressure of economic forces to work short hours and quite a different thing to force adult labourers by law to stop work at a particular hour. While nobody will object to the one, the other would be viewed as interference of an irritating kind. Mr Harvey's argument that 'the most likely way of inviting fresh restrictions is to pass measures which may fail to accomplish their professed object,' will appear unconvincing. It has an air of plausibility. The suggestion seems to be that the acceptance of the proposed measure would prevent future restrictive legislation. It is the old story. The argument is not new. It is in requisition for the justification of all repressive and restrictive measures. There is no such thing as guarantee for the future in legislation. Had the past Bill after Lord Lansdowne's solemn assurance. The course of events thus points to a different and régime has failed. The shrewd observation of Sir John Hewett, one of the ablest, most experienced and far-sighted of our Provincial Governors, is much nearer the truth. 'If legislation is now undertaken here, but that attempts will be made in the future—not always suggested merely by the idea of doing justice to the operatives—to still further restrict the working hours of adult males.' I therefore firmly believe that it is not possible to steer a middle course in a matter like this, and our largest margin of safety lies in altogether excluding any legislative interference with adult labour.

"My Lord, I submit fresh restrictions will not only handicap the most important industry of the country, but practically strangle it. True, Government has evinced a healthy solicitude for the production of long staple cotton, but so far its efforts have failed to have much stimulating effect upon the manufacturing industry and the cotton industry in general. Moreover, Government action in the past, doubtless well-meant, has far from being encouraging, proved prejudicial to the interests of the Indian manufacturer. The closure of the Mints to the free coinage of silver, followed by a wholly indefensible Countervailing Excise-duty of 3½ per cent., has seriously affected the export of the Indian yarn and cloth, and pro tanto interfered with the millowners' profits. The recent heavy tax on silver, which is equivalent to a three per cent. bounty to China and Japan, has further penalised Indian yarn in the Far East. Are we on the top of all this to be burdened with the further disability of not being able to deal with our indigenous labour? My Lord, it is well-known that the Factory Commission would not have been appointed and this legislation would never have been thought of but for the exaggerated and sensational, albeit honest, reports in a leading journal of Bombay; but the charges of overwork and physical deterioration of the operatives have now been authoritatively contradicted by the Factory Commission. My Lord, Indian manufacturers have been the most constant, devoted and powerful supporters of Government in times of trouble. They have, as a class, scrupulously held themselves aloof from all opposition to Government. It is thus class of loyal supporters who claim the protection of Government; and will Government withhold from them the sympathetic consideration to which they are entitled; will Government refuse the help which they so urgently need? I hope not. I pray not. I do not believe that, on a proper presentment of the facts, Government will not listen to our appeal. Malicious aspersions and criticisms notwithstanding, Government is righteous in its intentions and aims. More than this, it is actuated by sympathy and a genuine desire to advance the prosperity of the country. With all this sympathy, with all the kindness characteristic of British Indian rule, will Government, from sentimental considerations, from a vague fear, fetter and embarrass further an industry that has done in the past and promises to do in the future so much for the material advancement of the country? Legislation of this restrictive nature, best noted, while doing very little good to the operatives, will seriously handicap the textile industry. I appeal to your Excellency to yet prevent this unhappy result by removing from the Bill the restrictive provisions regarding adult labour."

The Hon'ble Mr. GRAHAM said:—"My Lord, as representing the Calcutta Chamber of Commerce I feel that I should fail in my duty if I did not on this occasion take the opportunity of, as shortly as possible, pressing the views of that Chamber. While in no way wishing to oppose the Bill, I should like to emphasise one or two points which have already been brought to the notice of Government in a letter from the Chamber. In the first place I think it is obvious that this Bill goes very much further than any recommendations of the Factory Labour Commission; and it is also, I think, obvious that it is very much in the nature of an experiment. Indian labour is, I feel, not quite the best field for such experiments, seeing that very few countries even in Europe have adopted any legislation of this sort. Keeping these points in view, I would ask that in Select Committee the Government would be ready to meet us as far as possible in any alterations and amendments which those who have been put on the Select Committee as experts in this direction may suggest, and I am perfectly certain that any such alterations and amendments will go far to the ultimate smooth working of the Bill if they can be adopted.

"It was with much regret that I heard what the Hon'ble Mr. Robertson said just now to the effect that there would be no going back on the direct limitation of adult labour, and thus in spite of the grave apprehensions expressed very strongly by the Chamber of Commerce and other bodies on this feature of the Act. We had hoped that in this direction something might have been done to meet us. But at the same time I was very glad to hear him say that the Government were proposing many amendments which would go far to meet the views expressed as regards other details."

The Hon'ble Mr. MUDDIMAN said:—"My Lord, the assurances which Mr. Robertson has given to us render many of the observations which I wished to make in regard to this Bill unnecessary at this stage of our proceedings. I am glad that Government consider that, in view of the various criticisms and suggestions which have come from those who take interest in this question, they are prepared to make important alterations in the provisions as drafted originally. But there was one portion of his speech which caused me disappointment similar to that expressed by the Hon'ble Mr. Graham, namely, that there will be no going back on the main principle and feature of this Bill. I hope that, in spite of what the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill has stated, he would be ready to consider what those who have experience in the employment of labour in different parts of the country have to urge in regard to this matter, and that he would not say that in regard to the main and distinctive feature of this Bill 'nothing that you might suggest from your experience would be at all considered.' We hope that even in regard to that matter, I mean the question of restricting the hours of labour in regard to adult males, he would have a free mind and would re-consider even that question of principle. My Lord, it is very necessary in this assembly, even though we feel that the Bill is one which has come, as it were, as a mandate from a power the potency of which cannot be questioned here, even though it comes with this mandate, it is necessary for those whose interests are involved to enter their emphatic protest against attempts like this. My Lord, the Bill is not one which was brought forward by the Government of India of their own accord, or suggested by any Local Government after conviction of its necessity. It was not demanded by the labourers; it was not demanded by any of the interests concerned in the country. It came from persons who, not to mince words, are our rivals in manufacture and in trade, and it is those rivals who have been working for this legislation. My Lord, this might appear blunt speaking. But I believe in this matter it is best to state things frankly. This is the view taken by those who are interested in the trade and also by the people generally, and it is a thing which I do beg Government to take into consideration. The agitation which resulted in the appointment of a Commission and the framing of this Bill, that agitation began after the boom of 1904–1905 in the cotton trade, the temporary prosperity of the textile industry which resulted in a small addition to our spindles and our looms, that roused the fears of those who were interested in the importation to India of an ever-growing quantity of textiles. They were afraid that the Indian textile trade was likely to be snatched away from them. And then was raised the cry of the overworking of the mill-hands. My Lord, in regard to that I would not ask this Council to take any assurance from those who are interested, but to take the statements given by that impartial body, the Factory Commission, presided over by one of the most experienced officers of Government, a gentleman who now holds a seat on the Council of the Governor of Bombay. There it was pointed out that so far as industries other than the textile were concerned, there was absolutely no ground whatever for saying that there were any excessive hours. It is only in regard to the textile industry it was stated that there were in certain parts of the country, what was called, excessive hours. But these excessive hours, be it remembered, my Lord, meant only the working of the factories; they did not signify that the operatives themselves had actually to work for longer hours than 12. It was found that in those factories, which worked for 14 or 15 hours, the number of persons employed was in excess of those who were actually at work at any one time. What they found was that all the operatives who were on the list were not actually working; only some of them were so working. Others, as is the case in all these factories, took leave or went out for purposes of their own and stayed away for half an hour at a time, and they did this more than once, the total periods of absence often aggregating to one hour, or even one and a half hours, and others had to be kept to take their places. This is what was found by the Factory Commission, both by their personal observation and what was stated to them by witnesses. Then it was also found that the quantity of work which was turned out, in other words, the intensity of labour in India, is nothing as compared to what exists in England. In India, the Factory Commission pointed out, it takes 2½ operatives to do the work of one English operative. That shows how hard, how great, is the strain in England and how comparatively milder is the strain on the operatives in India.

"One thing which I would beg the Council to consider is this, that in all these matters, as the Factory Commission pointed out, what has to be borne in mind is what is demanded by the interests of this country or in other words the interests both of the industry and the interests of the operatives themselves, and we should not allow ourselves to be carried away by what exists in other countries and draw false analogies from what exists in England or Europe or elsewhere. My Lord, those who ask for restriction of hours will find afterwards that the operatives do not thank them for what has happened. They speak of excessive hours in Bombay in 1896. When the excessive hours came to be curtailed, the reduction meant also a reduction in wages, and the operatives themselves were among those who complained of the restriction of hours. In seasonal factories of which I have considerable experience, whenever there is any excess working, the operatives, instead of grumbling, rather welcome these additional hours, because the additional hours mean an addition to their wages, and if factories working 12 hours work 15 hours, the operatives welcome those three hours because that gives them an addition of something like 25 per cent to their wages. So the operatives themselves, my Lord, do not ask for this restriction. I do not mean to say that humanitarian considerations should be left aside. And in order not to be misunderstood I wish to guard myself in regard to the necessity of protecting women and children as they are unable to protect themselves. In the case of children the State occupies the position of being its guardian. Even the patria potestas has to be laid aside in the case of children; much more then has the employer's power to be curtailed when children are employed. Similarly in the case of women who do not possess the same independence, the same control over themselves as men do, a considerable amount of care from the State is required. These things were admitted so far back as 1881 and 1891, and there is no disposition, whatsoever, in any responsible quarters to deny the necessity of protecting women and children. But it is this new principle which is sought to be introduced in India against which it is necessary to make an emphatic protest, that is, the curtailment of the freedom of persons quite capable of taking care of their own interests. If there had been any necessity, any reason shown, why factory hands ought to be specially protected, if it had been shown that advantage was taken of the ignorance or the necessities of these people, to impose upon them conditions which do not obtain in other trades, then a case might possibly have been made out. But, my Lord, unless we are prepared in this Council to admit communistic principles and to say that here we shall have nothing but equal division of profits between capital and labour, and that the hours of labour in every sphere of life, amongst domestic servants, in agriculture and in all other industries, have to be brought under the operation of the principle, I do not see with what consistency we can say that hours of factory labour alone shall be regulated by legislation. Unless we are prepared to say that this principle is to be carried to other spheres of life also, I submit, my Lord, it would not be proper for the legislature to say that this rule of maximum hours of labour can be laid down with regard to factories. It is, as I submit, my Lord, first of all an interference with the freedom of contract, and secondly it is selecting a special sphere of life for special legislation of an onerous kind and placing on factory owners responsibilities and heavy burdens which do not exist in the case of other trades. This is a matter in regard to which I ask Government to keep a free mind and to consider whether it is necessary to have this kind of restriction prescribed for adult male labour in factories. There are several matters more or less of detail, and in regard to them I say nothing at present. Only in regard to this distinctive feature of the Bill, it becomes necessary to submit to this Council the protest of the provinces which I represent and which possesses nearly 330 factories. It is necessary to enter our protest against this interference with adult male labour and with the relations proposed to be established between them and the factory owners."

The Hon'ble Sir VITHALDAS D THACKERSEY said:—"My Lord, I had the honour of representing the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and the Bombay Mill-Owners' Association on the last Factory Commission. I signed the report of the Factory Commission and endorsed almost everything that was said by that Commission, so that it cannot be said that, when I am speaking here, I am speaking on behalf of the employers of labour, because there is much in the Factory Commission's report in favour of the employees also. I may say at once that I would not oppose the restriction of the hours of adult labourers if it can be shown that it is necessary and that the adults have either suffered in health, or that they are not able to protect themselves, or that there is no other way by which we can meet any possible sweating in the future than the one method adopted by Government in the Bill. I hope that, after the statesmanlike declaration made by your Excellency that we should work here in a spirit of mutual concessions, the statement made by my friend the Hon'ble Mr. Robertson that, so far as the principle was concerned, Government had decided that it should be carried out, is not meant to be final. Perhaps that is the opinion which is at present held by the Government of India, and when we consider in detail the sections of the Bill the Government of India may choose to change their opinion.

"Now, my Lord, let us ask what is the principle to which the Government of India wish to adhere? Is it that there should be adult restriction, or is it that Government should not allow in future any sweating of the work-people? I believe the object of Government is the latter and not the principle that there should be direct restriction of the working hours of adults. Now, so far as that is the result that Government have in view, But I am opposed to the direct restriction of the hours of adults, because I feel—and there are many others who feel in the same way—that it will create the greatest inconvenience possible to the industrial communities, on occasions when a little overtime is necessary and when it will hamper the industry not to be allowed to do this extra work. That view is taken by the Factory Commission in paragraph 47 of their report. Paragraph 47 of the report says—

'We are strongly opposed to any direct limitation of adult working hours, because we consider that there is no necessity for the adoption of this drastic course, because we are convinced that it would cause the greatest inconvenience to existing industries, most of which have never worked long hours, and because we think that such a measure would seriously hamper the growth of industrial enterprise.'

"Now, my Lord, after such a declaration by the Factory Commission is it right that we should go with a light heart and do just the opposite of what the Factory Commission recommended? The Factory Commission, as we know, was the most representative Commission ever appointed by the Government of India. It represented the several trades and industries. On the Commission we had as Chairman the Hon'ble Mr. Morison, than whom it would be difficult to find an officer more conscientious or who had greater sympathy with the raiyats from whom the millhands are generally recruited. We had also the assistance on the Factory Commission of Mr. Beanmont, who is the Chief Inspector of Factories in England. I trust your Lordship will agree that the recommendations of such a Commission ought to carry the greatest weight with this Council and with the Government of India. The Commission recommended the creation of a 'young persons' class between the ages of 14 and 17 and the limitation of hours of their work to 12; and they were of opinion, and I do sincerely believe that they were right in thinking, that such limitation would bring down the hours of work in textile factories to 12. I mean the economical working of the mill. It was stated by the late Mr. Harvey, whose sad death we all deplore, that the Commission had suggested this as an indirect restriction in order chiefly that the hours of adult labourers should be restricted to 12. Now I was on the Commission, and I can say on behalf of the Commission that this is incorrect. We went step by step and we found that the restriction of the hours of young persons was necessary on its own merits. That is my point, and it was pointed out clearly by the Factory Commission in their report.

"Then, my Lord, about the independence of the factory employés, much has been said here and I will not detain the Council on that head. But as regards their health there are very interesting statistics given by Dr. Turner, statistics compiled during 7 years which show that the death-rate among the general labourers at Bombay was 31·58, while the death-rate amongst the factory operatives was 19·45. And Dr. Turner in his evidence pointed out that this was because the conditions of mill labour were much better: the men are better fed, better clothed and better housed. We have also the statistics of the death-rates in the Ratnagiri district, from which the mill-hands come, and we find that that district has the lowest death-rate in the whole Presidency.

"My Lord, it was said by the late Mr. Harvey that the creation of a 'young persons' class would entail administrative inconvenience. We know that there is a class of 'young persons' in England and no one has ever suggested that administrative convenience should reign supreme and that no regard should be paid to the inconvenience caused to factory owners by the direct restriction of the hours of adult labour.

"Well, my Lord, I think that the best plan for this Council would be to accept in toto the recommendations of the Factory Commission, and if the object that we have in view is not attained it would be quite easy for Government to come up next year and say, 'Here we accepted the co-operation of the factory owners, we accepted your own suggestion, we accepted the report of the Factory Commission, but the object has not been served. Well we will have direct restriction of adults.' That will be the proper time, my Lord, when the Government can justly dictate their terms. If, after all, there is a doubt about the effects of the creation of a 'young persons' class, then there is another way of dealing with the question, and that is what has been proposed by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce, viz., that in section 21 it might be provided that after 12 hours' work there should be a compulsory stoppage, I mean an interval of rest for the next 2 or 3 hours. For example, a factory starting at 6 o'clock will have to give half an hour's interval at 12 under the Bill. Re-starting at 12–30, it will have to stop at 6 o'clock, and, according to this suggestion, the hands must be given an interval of 3 hours so that they cannot begin work again before 9 P.M. It is absolutely impossible to expect the hands to come out at 9 o'clock at night to re-start the mill for the factory owner. There are other ways of dealing with the question if Government is not convinced of the efficacy of the Factory Commission's suggestion, and these I will place before the Select Committee.

"Then, my Lord, there is one other important matter which I should like to bring before this Council, namely, the question of working daylight hours. A passage from Lord Lansdowne's speech has been quoted by previous speakers, but since those times the only change that has taken place in the conditions of factory labour is the installation of the electric light, as the late Mr. Harvey admitted. Mr Harvey said that the conditions which prevailed in 1891 had been radically altered and that Government should, therefore, interfere in the matter. If any one studies the report of the Factory Commission, he will find that out of 224 cotton mills in India less than 100 are fitted with electric lights. Out of these 100, 25 or 30 only have worked excessive hours. Now, for the sake of these 25 or 30 mills we propose that all should be penalised. The mills in the Central Provinces have no electric lights, and the mills in the Madras Presidency also have no electric lights. They work daylight hours: they are not working excessive hours. To them the Government says under this Bill, 'Some people in Bombay have sinned, therefore we shall introduce a regular 12 hours Bill. We cannot tolerate daylight hours although it is liked by the hands. If the finances of the mill do not permit of electric light installation, do not work for longer hours. You shall not work more than 12 hours when the days are long.' That is the position which we create by this direct restriction. We tell everyone in the country that they must put in electric lights, and work 12 hours only.

"My Lord, that is all that I wish to say on this Bill, and I hope, as I have said at the beginning of my speech, that a spirit of mutual concession will characterise our proceedings and that Government will rather aim at preventing sweating than at the restriction of the hours of adult labourers."

The Hon'ble Mr. MEETHAN said:—"My Lord, the Bombay Chamber of Commerce have welcomed the inquiries of the Factories Commission and have in general supported the proposals. The Chamber expressed itself entirely at one with the Commission as to the necessity of restricting the hours of labour, but as a matter of principle objected to the hours of adult labour being restricted by direct legislation. As indicated by the Hon'ble Sir Vithaldas Thackersey, the Chamber has suggested that the object desired can be secured by adding a clause to the proposed Act as follows:—

'Provided that in the case of the textile factories in which a system of employment in shifts approved by the local inspector is not in force, there shall be after the factory has run twelve hours, excluding stoppages, under this section, an entire stoppage of all work for not less than one hour in cases where the previous stoppages aggregate to not less than one hour, and not less than one hour and a half in cases in which there has been a stoppage of half an hour only.'"

The Hon'ble Mr. ROBERTSON:—"My Lord, in my opening statement I referred to the very complete exposition of the policy of Government in connection with this Bill which was made by the late Mr. Harvey when he introduced it, and I also said that it was our earnest desire that, provided this policy is maintained, no unnecessary restrictions should be placed on the mill industry in India. That policy has been criticised by certain of the Hon'ble Members who have spoken, and it will be necessary for me to take up the time of the Council for a few minutes to recapitulate the grounds on which it is based.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Dadabhoy has referred to the debates which took place in this Council when the existing Act was passed in 1891, when the hope was expressed that further legislation of a restrictive nature would not be required. The change which came over the employment of labour in factories by the subsequent introduction of electric light in Bombay City—90 out of 85 mills have electric light installations—had, however, frustrated that hope, and has led to a state of affairs which has given the Government much anxious consideration.

"The question of the hours worked in textile factories came specially into prominence in the year 1905. The previous year had been a year of great prosperity to cotton manufacturers in India, and in the Bombay Presidency the boom had resulted in operatives being worked for very long hours with only the prescribed interval of half an hour for rest. The matter attracted public attention and an inquiry was set on foot by the Government of India into the facts. Eventually an experienced Factory Inspector (Sir Hamilton Frere-Smith) was sent out from England to investigate the conditions existing. With him were associated two medical officers of Indian experience. The report submitted by this Committee strongly confirmed the abuses which were alleged and which were found by the Committee to exist, and concluded with the recommendation that legislative action should be taken by Government to limit the working hours of adult males in factories. The Government of India had, however, given a pledge that no such action would be taken until a representative Commission had examined carefully into the whole subject. This Commission was appointed in the year 1907, and their report was submitted to Government in 1908. The Commission found that excessive hours were habitually worked in textile factories in many parts of India, more especially in cotton-mills in Western and in some localities of Northern India, and in the weaving department of jute-mills in Bengal. On this point I may agree with the Hon'ble Mr. Dadabhoy, who seems to consider that the Bombay scandal of 1906 is still the only test which Government have before them. The Commission made a proposal by which they trusted that a 12 hours working day would come to be adopted, and throughout their report they made it quite evident that this was the object they had in view. The report was circulated to Local Governments for opinion, and it was particularly enjoined that the views of persons connected with the mill industry should be obtained regarding their recommendations. The whole of the opinions thus received were very carefully considered by the Government of India in 1909, and the decision was come to to legislate for the restriction of the working hours of adult males in textile factories.

"I have given the above brief resumé in order to show the deliberation which has been bestowed upon this important question. As was explained by the late Mr. Harvey, the Government of India were unable to accept the recommendation of the Factory Commission that an indirect method should be adopted for obtaining a limit to the working hours of factories. The Commission had proposed the creation of a class of 'young persons' between the ages of 14 and 17 whose working hours should be defined. The hope was time and again expressed by the Commission in their report that the creation of such a class of operatives with limited hours of working would automatically bring about a general 12 hours working day. It was only when after exhaustive examination the opinion thus expressed was found to be insufficient to attain the desired result that the Government of India embarked upon the legislation which is now before this Council.

"The arguments which have been adduced against the Bill resolve themselves into the following: 'It is a serious interference with the rights of adult male labour and an unjustifiable restriction of rights over property. It is further argued that the present is an unsuitable time for undertaking an experiment in legislation of the nature proposed, as the mill industries are in a depressed condition. I shall briefly deal with these arguments.

"I should like in the first place to read three extracts from the report of the Factory Commission, a report which was signed, as he himself has remarked, by the Hon'ble Sir Vithaldas Thackersey. 'In our opinion,' say the Factory Commission, 'no further argument is necessary to prove that such a condition of affairs,' i.e., the state of affairs that obtained in Bombay in 1905-06, and which the Commission found to be still prevalent in many parts of the country, 'must inevitably lead to the deterioration of the workers. It must also render the factory work so unpopular that the labour supply necessary to the adequate development of the industrial resources of the country will not be forthcoming, and the abuse is of so grave a character and so opposed to all humanitarian considerations and so fraught with serious consequences both to the industrial population and to Indian industry that the Government would, in our opinion, be justified in taking any steps which experience might show to be necessary in order to prevent it from continuing or recurring.' And again, 'we consider that it is the duty of Government on both economic and humanitarian grounds to prevent the continuance or recurrence of that system.' The Commission further wrote: 'Had this effective alternative,' i.e., the alternative of the creation of a 'young persons' class, 'not been available, we are of opinion that direct limitation of the working hours of adults would then have been not only justifiable but necessary in order to prevent abuses which the Government of India could not upon economic and humanitarian grounds permit to continue or recur.' These are strong words, and Government would, I submit, have been found wanting had they failed to act upon the warning which was thus conveyed.

"I may here for one moment say a word as to the reasons which led Government to abandon the alternative of the Commission for the creation of a 'young persons' class which would bring about the limitation of the working hours of adults in textile factories. The Commission described their alternative as 'effective' in the last extract which I have just read. But in another passage of their report it appears to me that they themselves had apparently begun to doubt its effectiveness, when they expressed themselves opposed to direct limitation of the hours of labour, until all other restrictive measures of a practicable character had been tried and had been proved inadequate. On the report being circulated, a strong body of opinion was received that the result anticipated by the Commission would not follow on the recommendation which they made. The Governments of Bombay and the United Provinces expressed the gravest doubts on the success of the Commission's proposals. Some of the other Local Governments considered that failure was certain to ensue. And the opinion was freely expressed that it would be most undesirable to adopt legislation the failure of which to secure its main object would be proved in a few years. Numerous opinions were also received from persons interested in the mill industry which showed that the intention of the Commission would be frustrated. The Bombay Chamber of Commerce held this view, and I may quote the opinion which was given by the Hon'ble Mr. Madholkar on this particular subject: 'In the event of the creation of a class of 'young persons' he had no intention of stopping his mill at the end of their hours, but would work the mill with adult labour for an extra hour.' That is, in the sultry climate of Berar, the Hon'ble gentleman considered that a man could be worked inside a mill for 13 hours out of the 24 for six days a week. The failure of the Commission's proposals being thus demonstrated, the Government of India had but one alternative left, to proceed by the method of direct restriction of the working hours in factories. They considered it both necessary and imperative that the dangers which the Commission foreshadowed should not be allowed to arise.

"But it is said that the measure involves uncalled-for interference with the rights of the worker to take his own working time. All that I need say about this is that the workers themselves have in general expressed the desire that some definite restriction should be placed on their working hours this being an object which they cannot obtain by their own action as would be the case in countries more advanced. In more than one place in the Commission's report, reference is made to this matter. I need only quote one instance. 'We find them,' say the Commissioners, 'with few exceptions strongly opposed to the practice of working excessive hours and in favour of interference by Government to prevent it.' A high authority on the subject told me recently, when discussing this question of the preference of the workers. 'You go to one of these mills, which work their people like this, late one evening and see the workpeoples' faces. You will not need to ask questions about what the workpeople want; their weary looks will tell you this.' We are further told that this proposal to fix the hours during which men can work is an innovation for which there is no precedent. In England organisation of labour prevents the workmen being overworked, but as the Factory Commission at the outset of their report have remarked, we cannot apply the practice of England to this country. And on the general question it may be permissible to quote Professor Jevons, who, in his work State relation to Labour, speaks of the matter thus:—

"'No one would propose to interfere with the workman labouring in his own private shop or dwelling. There the adult can work as he likes, but where a large number of men are employed in a factory there is not the same individual liberty. All must conform to the utterances of the majority or the will of the employers or the customs of the trade. I see nothing therefore to forbid the State from interfering in the matter if it could be clearly shown that the existing customs are injurious to health and that there is no other probable remedy. Neither principle, experience nor precedent in other cases of legislation prevents us from contemplating the idea of State interference in such matters.'

"In India we are convinced that there is no other probable remedy for the evil which we are now discussing save State interference as proposed in the present Bill. The Hon'ble Mr. Dadabhoy has just admitted that the State must intervene in the interests of those who cannot protect themselves, and we hold that it has been abundantly shown that the Indian factory labourer falls within the latter category.

"It has also been argued that this measure is an unjustifiable interference with the rights of the mill-owners. We do not believe that the mill industry will be adversely affected by the measure which we propose, but in any case we could not allow the argument to stand in view of the graver considerations involved in the humanitarian and economic issues on which so much importance has been laid by the Factory Commission in the extracts which I have already quoted. We know that many mill-owners are prepared to accept the twelve-hours' limit as a sound economic measure since it will protect those who desire to treat their operatives humanely from the unfair competition of those whose desire for gain blinds them to the wastage of labour that is going on, even if they do not discern it. When the Bombay Mill-owners' Association in 1905 themselves proposed a twelve hours' working day, are we to believe that they thought it was going to do them harm? The proposal could not be carried into effect as certain individual mill-owners failed to act up to the standard which was set. We think it is but reasonable that a means should be found of securing the mill industry against what can only be described as such unfair competition, and, as I shall presently show, we do not believe that the restriction which we propose to introduce will have the effect of decreasing the value of the labour in the mills throughout the country.

"The Factory Commission have devoted a special chapter of their report to the effect which the reduction of the working hours of adult males to twelve will have upon the production of the mill industry. In their report they discussed the information supplied to them by four mills—the Buckingham Mills in Madras, the Cawnpore Cotton Mills and the Elgin Mills in Cawnpore, and the Empress Mills in Nagpur—which have made experiments in this direction. In two cases only was the experiment continued for a sufficiently long period to give results of definite value, and in these two cases the verdict of the Commission, after carefully considering the conditions, is that the production in a twelve-hour day exceeds or equals the production in a fifteen or thirteen-hour day. They further say that their observations have satisfied them that the Indian operative is more adaptable than the employers of labour in India have hitherto believed. If this be the case, the argument of undue interference with the rights of property becomes of little moment.

"I would ask the Hon'ble Members who have criticised the principle of this measure, what chance there is of a steady class of mill operatives being built up, if conditions such as the Factory Commission found to exist are not once and for all rendered impossible. The Commission have remarked upon the shifty nature of the factory workers in places where excessive hours are worked. And we time goes on, as other industries develop, it may be expected that mills will find an increasing difficulty in conserving their labour force, unless factory life is rendered attractive. Surely it is not to the disadvantage of the mill industry that Government should step in to do what far-seeing factory owners themselves admit to be imperative for the ultimate success of the industry, and that the foundation should be laid for the building up of a highly trained operative class, by the work of whose hands the manufacturing wealth of the country will increase.

"As to the present being an unfavourable time for the introduction of this measure, I may point out that, in the first place, the Bill, if passed into law, will not become operative until after a stated period of time, and, in the second, surely it stands to reason that a period when the mills in their own interests are working short time is a suitable opportunity for the introduction of a measure such as is proposed. Be that as it may, Government cannot depart from the principle involved in this Bill. As I have already said, this principle has been adopted after much deliberation and inquiry, and it has been accepted by many persons in the mill industry as a sound and beneficent measure.

"I may perhaps be allowed to mention, before I conclude, a couple of instances in this connection. At the Buckingham Mills in Madras, which I visited last September, I was told by the manager that the Company entirely approved of the measure; only in one detail, relating to cleaning of the machinery on Sundays, would it make any difference in the present practice of the mill. The Empress Mills at Nagpur have been described by a very high authority, Sir John Hewett, as the model of what an Indian mill ought to be. They are managed by Khan Bahadur Eezanji Dadabhoy, whose evidence on the subject of the working hours of mills is deserving of the greatest weight. The Khan Bahadur would even reduce the working hours of the day below the twelve hours' limit proposed in the Bill. He holds that a legally restricted working day of eleven hours, if adopted, would ultimately be found to be the best arrangement alike for masters and men on social, humanitarian and economic grounds. When these opinions are held by the managers of flourishing institutions such as I have mentioned, Government can surely say that they are justified in holding to the measure as one which should be placed upon the Statute-book."

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN PATENTS AND DESIGNS BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. ROBERTSON moved that the Indian Patents and Designs Bill be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr Syed Ah Imam, the Hon'ble Mr. Graham, the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao, the Hon'ble Sir Vithaldas Thackersey, the Hon'ble Mr. Macpherson, the Hon'ble Mr. Madhekar, the Hon'ble Mr Graves, and the Mover. He said:—"When I introduced this Bill in Council in March last, I explained its main provisions and the reasons for its introduction in some detail, and I need not repeat them now. I have only to say that the Bill which was then circulated for opinion has been received with general and marked approval, and that the procedure which it lays down for the grant of a patent is considered to be a great improvement on the existing law. Such criticisms as have been received are almost all directed to points of minor detail, which it is unnecessary for me to mention at this stage. These small points will all be duly considered in Select Committee.

"Of the changes of principle which the Bill introduces, there are only two that have been the subject of any important comment. In the first place a desire has been expressed in some quarters for the introduction of the sections of the English law which allow a provisional specification to be filed anterior to the complete specification of an invention. I explained in March last the disadvantages in this procedure. In actual practice the final specification has to be substantially identical with the original description of the invention, and the necessity of preparing two separate documents describing an invention causes considerable harassment both to the inventor and to the Patent Office, and is liable to cause trouble should proceedings be subsequently instituted before the Courts. The one advantage of a provisional specification is that it sometimes enables the inventor to develop his invention in the interval between the provisional and the complete specification. But it is considered that this is completely outweighed by the disadvantages to which I have alluded. I believe that except in England and some of the Colonies a provisional specification is not allowed, and I understand that even in England it is disliked in many quarters, and statistics seem to show that its use is steadily diminishing in comparison with the complete specification filed in the first instance. I may at the same time point out that it is always open to an inventor to amend his application, or to drop his first application and file a second, at very small cost to himself.

"The second point to which I would briefly refer relates to the provision for compulsory licenses. It has again been suggested in some quarters that the provision in the English Act which allows the revocation of a patent on the ground that the patented article is not manufactured exclusively or mainly outside the United Kingdom should be introduced in the Indian law. Our principal authorities, however, are agreed that the country is not ripe for a measure of this nature. I may mention that the provisions of section 27 of the English Act have only been put into effect to a very limited extent, and that the expected advantages of the new procedure have been inconsiderable. This being the case we do not propose to make any change in the Bill in the direction indicated. I may add that we have provided in the Bill a cheap and easy means of compelling a patentee to grant licenses to work his invention, and it is considered that this procedure is sufficient."

The Hon'ble Mr. SUBBA RAO said:—"My Lord, I may be permitted at the outset to say that the present Bill is a distinct improvement on the Act now in force. Since 1888 it has been found that the law laid down in it is in many points somewhat cumbrous and out of date. I am glad, therefore, that legislation on the subject has been taken in hand, and that it has been adopted as far as possible to the legislation in the advanced countries of the West. I may, however, refer to two points of principle in connection with this measure. One of them has been touched upon by the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill, and that is whether persons who take out a patent should be permitted to manufacture articles abroad and import them freely into this country, simply because they have secured a patent here, or whether they should be required to work the patent exclusively or mainly in this country. This is an important question which has a great bearing on the future prosperity of this country. It is estimated that in the United Kingdom, where the new law requiring the patent to be worked in that country has been in force for the last three years, nearly, if not more than, a million sterling has been invested in land, plant, and buildings. British manufacturers have been enabled by this provision to secure licenses from foreign patentees on equitable and reasonable terms. I submit that a similar provision in the present Bill would secure similar advantages to this country. No doubt conditions here are different from those prevailing in England; but when we consider that our industrial position is rather at a low ebb, such a provision will be of immense advantage to India. In fact, I submit that it would give an impetus to the industries and manufactures of this country and that it would make it easy for Indian manufacturers to obtain licenses for patents now proposed to be worked in foreign countries. I, therefore, venture to submit that this provision is imperatively necessary for this country.

"The second point I wish to refer to is the amount of work which is thrown on the Governor General in Council by this Bill according to which various questions will have to go before that body and the Governor General in Council has to sit in appeal against all decisions of the Comptroller. There are one or two ways in which the question may be looked at. It is no doubt a very high privilege, a very high honour, conferred upon an applicant or appellant under this Act that his case, apparently not one of much importance, is to be tried by so august a tribunal as the Governor General in Council. At the same time I have great doubts whether this tribunal of the Governor General and the Executive Members of his Council is the best tribunal to dispose of the questions that arise under the Bill and whether it is worth the while of the Governor General in Council to devote any time to the adjudication of such matters. In other countries no doubt such questions as these are left, for instance in England, to the Law Officer or the High Court, and I do not see why jurisdiction under this Bill should not be given to our High Courts. No doubt in this country the Executive generally takes upon itself and is rather too ready to take upon itself the functions of the Judiciary. But I am afraid that the Governor General in Council is not the best tribunal to adjudicate on questions that arise under the Bill. I venture to suggest, therefore, that the several questions arising out of this Bill should be left to the ordinary judicial tribunals to the High Courts of this country.

"These are the two points of principle to which I thought it desirable to draw the attention of the Council in connection with this Bill, and I hope that these two points will be taken into consideration by the Select Committee to which the Bill is referred."

The Hon'ble Mr. MAYNE said:—"My Lord, if the Hon'ble Mover had kindly stated the reasons which had weighed with the Government in inducing them to reject the revocation clause of the English Act, I should not have taken up the time of the Council in explaining the views which I have been asked to voice in this place. The only papers circulated to this Council throwing any light upon this point are contained in the letter of Mr. Denny, in which reference is made to two clauses of the English Act, and in the letter from the Director of Public Instruction forwarding Mr. Heaton's suggestions. But these two quotations hardly develop the point to which attention ought to be drawn. The wording of the English Act, in section 27, is this —

'At any time not less than four years after the date of a patent and not less than one year after the passing of this Act, any person may apply to the Controller for a revocation of a patent on the ground that the patented article or process is manufactured or carried out exclusively outside the United Kingdom.'

"From what I have been able to gather and read on the subject, among the reasons which entered into the minds of those who framed this clause were the facts that owing to the lower labour wages of Belgium, Germany and France, a large number of products were dumped at home at cheaper rates than they could be produced in Britain. Now it may be said that because in this country the labour wage is even lower than in Europe, arguments of that kind could not apply to a country like India. But as a matter of fact those of us who read trade quotations will find that a great many of the articles manufactured and brought from abroad could be produced in this country if some better protection were afforded in this country. I am not an expert on this question, my Lord, and I do not want to dilate upon it, but I have found—I have enquired amongst those who have more interest in the matter than I myself, and they have found—that our industries are not sufficiently protected and that a great deal is brought from abroad that might be made here, and that one of the avenues from which this evil creeps upon the country is the Patent Law. If that be so, I am sure the Hon'ble Member would confer a great favour upon our small captains of industry if he gave some attention to the doubts that I have tried to express."

The Hon'ble Mr. ROBERTSON said:—"My Lord, I have nothing to add to the remarks that I made when moving that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee. We shall be prepared to consider the points pressed upon us by the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao and the Hon'ble Mr. Madge although I personally can hardly hold out the hope that we shall be able to meet them with regard to the provision as to compulsory working. The matter will, however, be fully discussed in the Select Committee."

The motion was put and agreed to.

CRIMINAL TRIBES BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. JENKINS said:—"My Lord, I beg to move that the Bill to amend the law relating to the registration, surveillance and control of Criminal Tribes be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Syed Ali Imam, the Hon'ble Mr. Chitnavis, the Hon'ble Mr. Gokhale, the Hon'ble Nawab Abdul Majid, the Hon'ble Mr. Holms, the Hon'ble Mr. Phillips, the Hon'ble Malik Umar Hyat Khan, the Hon'ble Mr. Earle, the Hon'ble Lieutenant-Colonel Dirks and the mover. I fully explained the scope and purport of this Bill when it was introduced into the Legislative Council, and I do not propose to cover the same ground again. Since the Bill was introduced, it has been published and the opinions of Local Governments have been invited. No objection has been taken to the principle of the Bill, as indeed was to be expected since the principle has been embodied in the existing Act for many years. Many suggestions have however been received upon minor points, and these will be fully considered in the Select Committee. I do not think that I need refer to these minor suggestions, which refer principally to points of drafting, and are essentially matters for the consideration of the Select Committee."

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN PORTS (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. BUTLER said :—"My Lord, I beg to introduce a Bill to amend the Indian Ports Act, 1908. The Bill is a very short one and a very simple one. Its object is to enable provision to be made for the preparation of a satisfactory code of regulations for the prevention of the spread of disease by means of ships arriving at and departing from India. The Bill has been published and only one verbal criticism has been elicited. I now beg leave to move that it be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Syed Ali Imam, the Hon'ble Mr. Graham, the Hon'ble Maung Bah Too, the Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao, the Hon'ble Surgeon-General C. P. Lukis, the Hon'ble Mr. Monteath, the Hon'ble Mr. Lallubhai, the Hon'ble Mr. Porter, and the mover."

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN TRAMWAYS (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble Sir T. R. WYNNE moved that the Bill further to amend the Indian Tramways Act, 1886, be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Syed Ali Imam, the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan, the Hon'ble the Raja of Dighapatia, the Hon'ble Malik Umar Hyat Khan, the Hon'ble Sir Lionel Jacob, the Hon'ble Mr. Graves and the mover.

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN ARMY BILL.

His Excellency THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF moved that the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Government of His Majesty's Indian Forces be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the Hon'ble Mr. Jenkins, the Hon'ble Mr. Syed Ali Imam, the Hon'ble Mr. Haque, the Hon'ble Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, the Hon'ble Khan Zulfikar Ali Khan, the Hon'ble Major-General Sir Robert Scallon, the Hon'ble Mr. Madge, the Hon'ble Lieutenant-Colonel Davies, the Hon'ble Malik Umar Hyat Khan and the mover.

The motion was put and agreed to.

Liability of the person registered to pay Government dues.

10. (1) Any person claiming to be registered as proprietor under this Act by virtue of any transfer made after the commencement of this Act shall, on such registration, be deemed to be the landholder in respect of the estate or portion of the estate concerned for the purposes of the Madras Revenue Recovery Act, 1864, and shall be liable to be proceeded against under that Act for the recovery of all arrears of peshkash, cesses and other Government dues which at the time of the registration may be due on such estate or portion thereof, as the case may be, or which may become due thereon at any time while such registration remains in force.

II of 1864.

(2) If there is any valid agreement between the owner and the person registered under this Act as proprietor of a portion of an estate as to the amount of the dues payable on such portion, the amount due to the Government from the latter shall be determined in accordance with such agreement, except where it appears to the District Collector to be primâ facie unreasonable. In cases where there is no such agreement, or where the agreement appears to be unreasonable, the amount shall be determined in the manner laid down in section 45 of the Madras Revenue Recovery Act, 1864.

II of 1864.

Procedure in the case of default.

11. Where a transferee registered as proprietor under this Act makes default in the payment of the Government dues and it becomes necessary to proceed against the estate or portion thereof in respect of which he is registered as proprietor for the recovery of the arrears, the Collector or other officer empowered by the Collector in that behalf shall cause a copy of the notice prescribed in section 36 of the Madras Revenue Recovery Act, 1864, to be served upon the owner of the estate one month at least before the sale

31 of 1864.

Amendment of registration in case of default.

12. Where in consequence of the default of the transferee registered under this Act the owner of the estate pays the arrears due to the Government or any part of the estate is sold for the recovery of the arrears, the registration of the transferee as proprietor under this Act shall be annulled by the District Collector and the transferee shall thenceforth cease to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of a proprietor.

Barring of suits and applications for an injunction

13. No suit or application for an injunction shall lie in restraint of a District Collector's proceedings under this Act, nor shall the Secretary of State for India in Council or any officer of Government be made a party to any suit or be liable in respect of anything done or purporting to be done under this Act in good faith.

Power to make rules.

14. Subject to the approval of the Local Government the Board of Revenue may make rules not inconsistent with this Act for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Madras Proprietary Estates' Village Service Act, 1894, the Madras Hereditary Village-Offices Act, 1895, and the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1897, confer certain powers on the proprietors of estates and impose certain duties upon them. Leaving out of consideration the holders of permanent underleases, the definition of "proprietor" in these Acts is "any person "in whose name the estate is for the time being registered in the office of the Collector of the "district in which the estate is situated." Under the Madras Land Registration Regulation, 1802, which is the enactment governing the registration of estates, only owners can be registered as proprietors. The only persons therefore who can come within the above definition are the owners of estates. Persons having limited interests in estates, such as mortgagees and lessees, cannot exercise any of the powers conferred on proprietors by these Acts

2. The defect in the enactments was first realised in the case of managers of estates appointed by the Court of Wards and of other persons occupying a similar position such as receivers, guardians, etc. The definition of "proprietor" was then amended by the Madras Proprietary Estates and Survey (Amendment) Act, 1900, by the addition of a proviso in the following terms: "Provided that when any person other than the proprietor is in lawful "management of an estate or of a portion of an estate, such portion consisting of one or more "villages, but is not in such management as the agent of the proprietor or as mortgagee or lessee, "such person shall be deemed to be the proprietor of the estate or of the portion of the estate, as "the case may be."

3. Till the passing of the Madras Proprietary Estates and Survey (Amendment) Act, 1900, mortgagees in possession were as a matter of fact exercising control over village officers, but the enactment in express terms that mortgagees and lessees were not within the definition of "proprietors" made it impossible for them, after that date, to exercise any such control or secure the assistance and co-operation of village officials. Great inconvenience has in consequence been occasioned to mortgagees in the collection of rents and profits and in the discharge of their duties as mortgagees. It has therefore become necessary to provide that mortgagees and lessees and other persons having limited or temporary interests in the property should be placed in the position of proprietors for the purposes of the three Acts mentioned above.

4. The present Bill provides that persons having limited or temporary interests may be registered by the Collector as proprietors for all or any of the purposes of those Acts and that on such registration they may exercise the powers and discharge the duties of proprietors in respect of such purposes and that to this extent the owners of the estates shall not exercise the powers of proprietors. In what cases and to what extent persons having limited interests should be registered as proprietors and thus allowed to exercise the rights of proprietors is a matter which depends largely on the circumstances of each case, and the Bill therefore leaves it to the discretion of the Collector subject to the control of the Board of Revenue. Where the Collector is unable to order registration in consequence of a substantial and bonâ fide dispute regarding the applicant's right to possession, he is required to refer the applicant to a civil court to establish his right against the opposing party, and any party prejudicially affected by registry may also sue to have such registry corrected subject to the provision that no pecuniary liability should be thereby entailed on Government.

5. The following notes on the individual clauses of the Bill give further explanation of their provisions :—

Clause 2.—The language of clause 4 of the Bill is wide enough to cover the cases dealt with by the proviso to the definition of "proprietor" in the Madras Proprietary Estates' Village Service Act, 1894, and the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1897, and as mortgagees and lessees who are now to be invested, upon registration, with some of the powers of proprietors are expressly excluded by the said proviso, it is necessary to repeal it.

Clause 4.—The right to obtain registration is to be conferred only upon the person who is entitled to possession and not upon persons who may happen to be in possession without any right. As the possession of an "estate" consists in the collection of rents, it has been considered desirable to draw the attention of the registering authority to this circumstance. This clause will cover all the cases included in the present proviso to the definition of "proprietor" in the Madras Proprietary Estates' Village Service Act, 1894, and the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1897, as also mortgagees and lessees and all other persons having interests of a limited or temporary character in estates.

Clause 6.—It is inexpedient that the Collector should refuse registration merely on the ground that some objection is taken by the owner or any other interested person, irrespective of the character of the objection.

Clause 8.—An appeal to the Board of Revenue is provided from every order passed by the Collector.

Clause 10.—The land revenue being a first charge upon the land, it is reasonable that the estate or portion thereof which may be registered under this Act in the name of a transferee should bear the whole or a fair proportion of the revenue, as the case may be. The transferee in possession of the estate to whom this Bill gives additional facilities for the collection of rents is the proper person to be proceeded against for the Government dues.

Clause 11.—To avoid any injury to the owner by the sale of the estate or any portion thereof in consequence of the transferee's default, provision is made for service upon the owner of the notice of sale.

Clause 12.—In cases where the estate has been imperilled by the failure of the transferee to discharge his duty in the matter of the payment of the land revenue, it would be undesirable to allow him to exercise the powers of a proprietor any longer, and provision is therefore made for the annulment of the registration.

Clause 13.—The Collector's order of registration will give the registered person no authority to collect the rents but will only give him authority to act under the Madras Proprietary Estates' Village Service Act, 1894, the Madras Hereditary Village Offices Act, 1895, and the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1897. No liability to suit should, therefore, be imposed on the Government on account of any bonâ fide order made by a Collector under this Bill, nor should it be possible to arrest the Collector's order, which is of a provisional character, by an injunction. Provisions to this effect are included in this clause.

സർക്കാർ ഉടമയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകൾക്കു ക്രമാ ഉദ്യോഗ സംബന്ധമായ 1894 ലെ മതിരാശി ആക്ടപ്രകാരവും 1884 ലെ മതിരാശി പാരമ്പരാവകാശ അല്ലെ ഉദ്യോഗ ആക്ടപ്രകാരവും 1897 ലെ മതിരാശി സർവ്വ് അതിനടയാളമുള്ള ആക്ടപ്രകാരവും ഉള്ള എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളുടെ ഉടമസ്ഥനാകുന്ന ചില അധികാരങ്ങൾ നല്കുകയും അവയുടെ മേൽ ചില പ്രവൃത്തികൾ ചുമത്തുകയും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്നു. സ്ഥിരമായി കീഴ്പ്പെടിയായുള്ള അവകാശങ്ങളുടെ വിഷയത്തിൽ കാര്യം അലോചിക്കാതെ ഇരിക്കുന്നതായാൽ ഒരു ആക്ടത്തിലെ "ഉടമസ്ഥൻ" എന്നതിന്റെ അർത്ഥവിവരണം "ആ എസ്റ്റേറ്റ് ഇരിക്കുന്ന ഡിസ്ട്രിക്ടിലെ കലക്ടരുടെ മുമ്പാകെ ഏതൊരാളുടെപേരിൽ എസ്റ്റേറ്റ് തല്ലാലം രജിസ്റ്റർ ആയിരിക്കുന്നുവോ ആ ആളാം" എന്നാകുന്നു. എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകൾ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യുന്നതിനുള്ള നിബന്ധനയായ 1802 ലെ മതിരാശി നിലം രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യാനുള്ള റഗുലേഷൻപ്രകാരം സംഭാവനക്കാരെ മാത്രമെ ഉടമസ്ഥനായി രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്വാൻ പാടുള്ളു. അതുകൊണ്ട് മേൽപറഞ്ഞ അർത്ഥവിവരണത്തിൽ ഉൾപ്പെട്ടാൽ ആകുകയും എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളുടെ സംഭാവനക്കാരാകുകയും. എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളിൽ പണയക്കാർ പാട്ടക്കാർ എന്നിങ്ങിനെ ക്ലുപ്തവകാശങ്ങളുടെയുടമയായ ആളുകൾക്കും ഈ ആക്ടങ്ങൾ ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാർക്കു കൊടുത്തിട്ടുള്ള വല്ല അധികാരങ്ങളും നടത്തിക്കൂടുന്നതല്ല.

2. ഒരു നിബന്ധനകളിലുള്ള ന്യൂനതയൊന്നുകൊണ്ടായി പ്രത്യക്ഷമായുള്ള കോട്ട് ഓഫ് വാർഡുകളാൽ നിയ്യമിക്കപ്പെട്ട എസ്റ്റേറ്റ് മാനേജർമാരുടെയും ഉത്തരവിടിക്കാർ, രക്ഷിതാക്കന്മാർ, എന്നിങ്ങിനെ ആരു മേലുള്ള സ്ഥിതിയിലുള്ളവരായ മറ്റു ആളുകളുടെയും സംഗതിയിലാകുന്നു. ...തിനാൽ "ഉടമസ്ഥൻ" എന്നതിന്റെ അർത്ഥവിവരണം തന്നെ പറയുന്ന വാക്കുകളിൽ ഒരു ക്ലൂപ്തം ചെയ്തു സർക്കാർ ഉടയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചും ഈ മതിരാശി ആക്ട ദേഭേദഗതിയുന്ന 1900 ലെ ആക്ടിനാൽ പിന്നെ ചേർക്കപ്പെട്ടിട്ടു: "എന്നാൽ ഒരു എസ്റ്റേറ്റിന്റെയൊ അതിലുള്ളതിൽ ഒരു എസ്റ്റേറ്റിലെ മറ്റൊരു അധികമൊ ഭാഗങ്ങളെ അടക്കിയ ഒരു സാമന്തന്റെയൊ ന്യായമായ വിചാരത്തിനു ഉടമസ്ഥനല്ലാത്ത വല്ല ആളുകളെ ഉണ്ടാക്കിയിരിക്കയും എന്നാൽ ആ വിചാരണ നടത്തുന്നതു ഉടമസ്ഥന്റെ കാര്യവിചാരകനായിട്ടൊ അവകാശത്തിൽ പണയക്കാരനായിട്ടൊ പാട്ടക്കാരനായിട്ടൊ അല്ലാതിരിക്കയും ചെയ്യുമ്പോൾ ആ ആളെ അന്നായ സംഗതിപോലെ ആ എസ്റ്റേറ്റിന്റെയൊ ആ എസ്റ്റേറ്റിൽപ്പെട്ട ഭാഗത്തിന്റെയൊ ഉടമസ്ഥനായി വിചാരിക്കയും വേണം."

3. സർക്കാർ ഉടയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചു ഒരു മതിരാശി ആക്ട ദേഭേദഗതിയുന്ന 1900 ലെ ആക്ട നിയമിച്ചിട്ടുള്ളതിനു മുമ്പെ പണയക്കാർ അല്ലെ ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാരുടെമേൽ യഥാർത്ഥത്തിൽ അധികാരം നടത്തിയിരുന്നു. എന്നാൽ പണയക്കാരും പാട്ടക്കാരും "ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ" എന്നതിന്റെ അർത്ഥവിവരണത്തിൽ ഉൾപ്പെട്ടുകയില്ലെന്നു നിയമം വ്യക്തമായി പറഞ്ഞിരിക്കയാൽ ആ തിയതിക്കു പിമ്പുള്ള ഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാരുടെമേൽ അധികാരം നടത്തുവാനൊ അവരുടെ സഹായവും സഹകരണവും ലഭിപ്പാനൊ അവർക്കു അസാദ്ധ്യമായിത്തീർന്നു. ഇതു ഹേതുവായി പണയക്കാർ പാട്ടക്കാരുടെ ആദായങ്ങളും വസൂൽ ചെയ്യുന്നതിലും പണയക്കാരുടെ നിലയിൽ അവർക്കുള്ള പ്രവൃത്തികൾ നടത്തുന്നതിലും വളരെ ഭയങ്കരമായ ബുദ്ധിമുട്ടുകൾ നേരിടുവാനിടവന്നിരിക്കുന്നു. മറ്റുകൊണ്ടു പണയക്കാരും പാട്ടക്കാരും വസ്തുവിന് ക്ലുപ്തപ്പെടുത്തിയതൊ താൽക്കാലികമായതൊ ആയ അവകാശങ്ങളും ഉള്ള മറ്റു കുടിയാന്മാരും ഉൾപ്പെടെ ഈ ആക്ടങ്ങൾകൊണ്ടും ആവശ്യങ്ങൾക്കായി ഉടമസ്ഥനുടെ സ്ഥിതിയിൽ വെക്കേണ്ടതിനു നിയമിക്കുന്നു ആവശ്യമായി വന്നിരിക്കുന്നു.

4. ഒരു ആകുകളുടെ ആവശ്യങ്ങൾ എല്ലാവരിലുമൊ വല്ലതിലുമൊ വേണ്ടി ക്ലുപ്തപ്പെടുത്തിയതൊ താൽക്കാലികമായതൊ ആയ അവകാശങ്ങളുള്ള ആളുകളെ ഉടമസ്ഥനാ

ായി കലക്ടർ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യാതെയും അങ്ങിനെ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യാൻ അവർ ആ ആവശ്യങ്ങളെ സംബന്ധിച്ചിടത്തോളം ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാർക്കുള്ള അധികാരങ്ങളും പ്രവൃത്തികളും നടത്താവുന്നതാണെന്നും ഇങ്ങിനെ നടത്തുന്നതു എന്തുതന്നെയായാലും അതുതന്നെ എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളുടെ സംബന്ധമായോ ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ അധികാരങ്ങൾ നടത്തിക്കുന്നതിനു വേണ്ടി ബിൽ നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്ന, കൂട്ടിച്ചേർത്തിയ അവകാശങ്ങളുള്ള ആളുകൾക്കു എതു സംഗതിയിലും എതുതന്നെയായാലും ഉടമസ്ഥനായി രജിസ്റ്റാക്കി ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ അധികാരങ്ങൾ നടത്തുവാൻ അനുവദിക്കേണ്ടതാണെന്നുള്ള മിശവാടും അതായ കാര്യത്തിന്റെ അവസ്ഥകളെ ആശ്രയിച്ചു നിൽക്കുന്ന ഒരു കാര്യമാകുന്നു. അല്ലെങ്കിൽ ആ കാര്യം റവന്യൂബോർഡിന്റെ മേൽവിചാരണക്കുപ്പെട്ട കലക്ടരുടെ യുക്തംപോലെ ചെയ്വാൻ ബില്ല് അനുവദിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു, കൈവശം വെപ്പാൻ അപേക്ഷകനുള്ള അവകാശത്തെപ്പറ്റി സാവധാനവിശ്വാസവും ആയ ഒരു വാദം ഹാജരായാൽ കലക്ടർ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്വാനായി കല്പിപ്പാൻ സാധിക്കാത്ത സംഗതിയിൽ എതുകക്ഷിക്കു പ്രതിഭാഗമായി തന്റെ അവകാശം സ്ഥാപിപ്പാൻ വേണ്ടി അപേക്ഷകനോടു ഒരു സിവിൽ കോർട്ടിൽ പോവാൻ അദ്ദേഹത്തിനു കല്പിക്കാവുന്നതാണെന്നു നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു. എന്നാൽ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്തതിലും ചെയ്യാതിരുന്നതിലും വല്ല കക്ഷിയും ഗവർണ്മെന്റിനെതിരെ പണം സംബന്ധമായ യാതൊരു ബാദ്ധ്യതയും ഉണ്ടാവാതിരിക്കേണമെന്നുള്ള നിയമത്തിനുംപെട്ട അവർ രജിസ്റ്റർ ശരിപ്പെടുത്തിക്കിട്ടുവാനുള്ള വ്യവഹാരത്തിൽ ഏർപ്പെടുന്നതും ആകുന്നു.

5. ഈ ബില്ലിലെ അനുബന്ധങ്ങളിലും പറഞ്ഞിട്ടുള്ള താഴെ പറയുന്ന ഭേദഗതികൾ കൂടാതെ അവയിൽ നിയമിച്ചുകാണുന്നതുപോലെ ഇതിലും ഏതൊരു വിധത്തിലും കൊടുത്തിരിക്കുന്നു:—

2-ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—സർക്കാർ ഉടമയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളും വക ഗ്രാമ ഉദ്യോഗ സംബന്ധമായ 1894 ലെ മദിരാശി ആക്ടിലും 1897 ലെ മദിരാശി സെക്ഷ്വ അതിനടയാളമാക്കിലും "ഉടമസ്ഥൻ" എന്നതിന്റെ അർത്ഥവിവരണത്തോടു ചേർത്ത ക്ലൗസിൽ പറഞ്ഞ കാര്യങ്ങളും ഉൾപ്പെടുവാൻ തക്കവണ്ണം ബില്ലിലെ 4-ാം ഖണ്ഡത്തിലെ വാചകനിരൂപണത്തിനു വേണ്ടുന്നതു ചിന്തയാണിരിക്കുന്നു. രജിസ്റ്റർ കഴിഞ്ഞാൽ ഉടമസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ ചില അധികാരങ്ങൾ ഉപയോഗപ്പെടുത്തുന്നവരായ പണയക്കാരെയും പാട്ടക്കാരെയും പറ്റി ക്ലൗസിൽനിന്നു വ്യക്തമായി ഒഴിവാക്കിയിരിക്കയാൽ അതു ഉൾപ്പെടുത്തുന്നതു ഇപ്പോൾ ആവശ്യമായിരിക്കുന്നു.

4-ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്തു കിട്ടുവാനുള്ള അവകാശം കൈവശം വെപ്പാൻ അർഹതയുള്ള ആൾക്കാരും കൊടുക്കുന്നതും യാതൊരവകാശവും കൂടാതെ കൈവശക്കാരനായിരിപ്പാൻ ഇടയുള്ള ആളുകളും തമ്മിൽ ഒരു വ്യത്യാസം ഉണ്ടാക്കുന്നതിനു വേണ്ടി ഈ ഖണ്ഡം ഭേദഗതിചെയ്യുന്നതും ആകുന്നു. ഒരു എസ്റ്റേറ്റിന്റെ കൈവശമായിരിക്കുന്നതിൽ പട്ടണം പിരിക്കുന്നതും മുടി ഉപയോഗിച്ചിരിക്കയാൽ ഒരു അവസ്ഥ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യുന്ന അധികാരസ്ഥന്റെ ശ്രദ്ധയിൽ കൊണ്ടുവരുന്നതു യുക്തമാണെന്നാലോചിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു. സർക്കാർ ഉടമയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളും വക ഗ്രാമ ഉദ്യോഗ സംബന്ധമായ 1894 ലെ മദിരാശി ആക്ടിലും 1897 ലെ മദിരാശി സെക്ഷ്വ അതിനടയാളമാക്കിലും "ഉടമസ്ഥൻ" എന്നതിന്റെ അർത്ഥവിവരണത്തോടു ചേർത്തിട്ടുള്ള ഇപ്പോഴത്തെ ക്ലൗസിൽ ഉൾപ്പെടുത്തിട്ടുള്ള എല്ലാ കാര്യങ്ങളും പണയക്കാരും പാട്ടക്കാരും എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകളിൽ ക്ലൗസിൽ ഉൾപ്പെടുത്തിട്ടുള്ളതു താൽക്കാലികമായിട്ടുള്ളതും മറ്റു ഒരു പ്രകൃതത്തിലുള്ള യാചകരും ആകുന്നു. അതുകൊണ്ടു ഈ ഖണ്ഡത്തിൽ ഉൾപ്പെടുന്നതാകുന്നു.

6-ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—സ്വന്തക്കാരനോ അവകാശമുള്ള മറ്റു വല്ല ആളോ വല്ല വിധേയാക്ഷേപവും ചെയ്തിരിക്കുന്ന എന്ന ന്യായത്തിന്മേൽമാത്രം ആ വിധേയാക്ഷേപത്തിനു മറ്റു സമയത്തെപ്പറ്റി ചിന്തിക്കാതെ കലക്ടർ രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യാൻ നിരോധിക്കുന്നതു അയുക്തമായിട്ടുള്ളതാകുന്നു.

8 - ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—കലക്ടർ കല്പിക്കുന്ന എല്ലാ കല്പനയിന്മേലും റവന്യൂ ബോർഡിലേക്ക് അപ്പീൽ ചെയ്യാമെന്നും നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.

10 - ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—നിലനികുതി അടവു, നിലത്തിന്മേൽ മറ്റൊരുത്തന് ഒരു ബാധ്യതയാക കൊണ്ടു കൈമാറം കിട്ടിയവന്റെ പേരിൽ തന്നെ അതുപ്രകാരം രജിസ്റ്റർചെയ്യുന്ന എസ്റ്റേറ്റിനെ അതിന്റെ ഭാഗമോ അതായ്തു സംഗതിപോലെ നികുതി മുഴുവനുമോ അതിന്റെ ന്യായമായ ഒരു ഖിലമോ മുൻകൂട്ടണ്ടെന്നുള്ള ന്യായമായിട്ടുള്ളതാകുന്നു. പാട്ടം പിരിപ്പാനായി ഒരു ബില്ലു അധികമായ സൌകര്യങ്ങൾ കൊടുക്കുന്നു എസ്റ്റേറ്റിന്റെ കൈവശം കിട്ടിയ ഉടനെ നേരെ ആകുന്ന ശവർണ്മെന്റിലേക്കുള്ള അടവുകൾ വസൂൽ ചെയ്യാൻ ശ്രമിയായി പുറപ്പെടുന്നതു.

11 - ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—കൈവശം കിട്ടിയവൻ വീഴ്ച ഹേതുവാൽ എസ്റ്റേറ്റിന്റെ അതിന്റെ വല്ല ഭാഗമോ ലേലത്തിൽ വിൽക്കുന്നതുകൊണ്ടു സ്വന്തക്കാരനു വല്ല ദോഷവും ഉണ്ടാവാതെ കഴിപ്പാൻ ലേല ചട്ടങ്ങൾ സ്വന്തക്കാരന്റെമേൽ നടത്തുമായി നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.

12 - ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—നിലനികുതി അടക്കുന്നതിനു തന്റെ ബാദ്ധ്യത നിറവേറ്റുവാൻ കൈവശം കിട്ടിയവൻ ചെയ്യേ വിഴ്ചയാൽ എസ്റ്റേറ്റിനു ദോഷം തട്ടുന്ന സംഗതികളിൽ കുടിയന്മേസ്ഥന്റെ അധികാരങ്ങൾ അതിൽ ചിലതു നടത്തുവാൻ അവനെ തന്നെവിടുന്നതു ഉപയുക്തമായിട്ടുള്ളതാകുന്നു. ആകയാൽ രജിസ്റ്റർ ഉദ്ദേശപ്പെട്ടിരുന്നതാണെന്നു നിയമിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നു.

13 - ാം ഖണ്ഡം.—രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യുതിനെപ്പറ്റിയുള്ള കലക്ടരുടെ കല്പനകൊണ്ടു രജിസ്റ്റർ ചെയ്യപ്പെട്ട ആധാരം പിടിച്ചുപറിക്കുവാൻ യാതൊരു അധികാരവും സിദ്ധിക്കുന്നതല്ല. എന്നാൽ സർക്കാർ ഉടമയല്ലാത്ത എസ്റ്റേറ്റുകൾപോലെ ഗ്രാമ ഉദ്യോഗസംബന്ധമായ 1894 ലെ മതിരാശി ആക്ടുപ്രകാരവും 1895 ലെ മതിരാശി പാമ്പരാഗതകാരങ്ങൾ ഉദ്യോഗ ആക്ടുപ്രകാരവും 1897 ലെ മതിരാശി സർവ്വേ അതിരടയാള ആക്ടുപ്രകാരവും പ്രവൃത്തിപ്പാനുള്ള അധികാരങ്ങളെ ആയാൾക്കു സിദ്ധിക്കുന്നുള്ളൂ. അതുകൊണ്ടു കലക്ടർ ഒരു ബില്ലിപ്രകാരം ഉത്തരവിടുമ്പോഴായി കല്പിച്ച ഒരു കല്പന ഹേതുവാൽ ശവർണ്മെന്റിന്റെമേൽ വ്യവഹാരപ്പെടുവാൻ യാതൊരു അവകാശവും ഉണ്ടാകുന്നതല്ല. എന്നാൽ മാത്രമല്ല, കലക്ടരുടെ കല്പന തച്ഛാസ്ഥിക പ്രകൃതത്തിലുള്ള ഒന്നാകയാൽ അതിനു ഒരു നിരോധ കല്പനയാൽ തടസ്ഥം ചെയ്യുന്നതു സാധ്യമല്ലാതിരിക്കേണ്ടതും ആകുന്നു. ഇതിനുവേണ്ടി നിയമങ്ങൾ ഒരു വകുപ്പിൽ ചേർത്തിട്ടുണ്ടു.
